CHARLIE FOX, JR.
COUNTY CLERK

I, ADAM J. STRASSER, a resident of Arrington, Williamson County, Tennessee, do make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills and Codicils heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I: I direct that all my just debts, my funeral expenses and the expenses of the administration of my estate and all estate and inheritance taxes be paid by my co-executors out of any monies coming into their hands including the proceeds of any life insurance policies which may be payable to my estate.

ARTICLE II: I give, devise and bequeath, in equal shares, to the Bethel College of McKenzie, Tennessee and the Jenkins Cumberland Presbyterian Church at Nolensville, Tennessee, all of my right, title and interest in certain real property of which I own an interest, located at Hamilton Churck Pike in Davidson County, Tennessee, consisting of approximately sixty-seven (67) acres, more or less, or the proceeds of any sale thereof. This devise and bequest is unrestricted and the Board of Trustees or other governing body of either organization may use or sell the property for the benefit of their respective organization in any manner they deem appropriate, or the proceeds of any sale thereof.

 Adam J. Strasser

ARTICLE III: All the rest, residue and remainder of the property which I may own at the time of my death, real, personal and mixed, tangible and intangible, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, including all property which I may acquire or become entitled to after the execution of this Will, including all lapsed legacies and devises, I bequeath in fee to my beloved wife, HANNA STRASSER. If my said wife shall not survive me, I devise and bequeath said property, in fee, in equal shares, to my son JOHN ADAM STRASSER, my son CHARLES M. STRASSER and my daughter, RUTH STRASSER BOWERS, in equal shares, share and share alike, per stirpes.

ARTICLE IV: If my wife and I shall die under such circumstances that there is not sufficient evidence to determine the order of our deaths, then it shall be presumed that she survived me and my estate shall be administered and distributed in all respects, in accordance with such presumption.

ARTICLE V: Although my wife and I are executing our Will at or about the same time, I desire to make it plain that there has been no contract between my wife and I to make a mutual testementary disposition of our property. It is my intention that no such contract should be inferred from the execution of Wills which are substantially similar in content.

ARTICLE VI: I appoint my son, JOHN ADAM STRASSER, my son CHARLES M. STRASSER and my daughter, RUTH STRASSER BOWERS, as co-executors of this my Last Will and Testament and direct that no bond be required of them. I authorize my co-executors in the exercise of reasonable discretion, with respect to all property, real and personal, to exercise any and all of the powers set forth in Section III of Chapter 110 of the Public Acts of the Tennessee General Assembly of 1963, Tennessee Code Annotated §35-50-110 to the extent that they are applicable. These powers are incorporation by reference as fully as if copied verbatim. In the event that one or more of my children are unable to serve or does not desire to serve for some reason, then I appoint the remainder of them as co-executors or executor and require that no bond be required of them and authorize them to exercise any and all of the powers given to my co-executors hereinabove set forth.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand on this the 4th day of Dec., 1985, and do publish and declare this as my Last Will and Testament, in the presence of each and all of the subscribing witnesses, who I have requested to act as such by signing the Attestation Clause and Affidavit below, pursuant to the provisions of Tennessee Code Annotated §32-2-110.
