ORDER

This cause came on to be heard April 28, 1976, before the Honorable James M. Swiggart, Judge of the Sixth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill of the plaintiff, personal service had upon the defendant, a judgment by default having been entered against the defendant, witnesses introduced in open court and the entire record in this cause.

From all of which the Court was of the opinion that the allegations contained in the original bill were fully sustained, that is, that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward plaintiff as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff be and he is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the real estate of the parties be divested out of the plaintiff and vested in the defendant as her sole property.

The defendant will pay the costs of this cause for which execution may issue if necessary.

Enter This 17th Day of May, 1976
