FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard this 13th day of September, 1971, before the Honorable Donald D. Hildebrand, Special Judge of the Probate Court, upon the original bill and the oral testimony heard by the Court. From the foregoing, it appears to the Court that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards him as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper.

It is accordingly ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that complainant be granted an absolute divorce from defendant and be restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED that the property settlement hereinafter copied in this decree is approved and made the decree of this Court.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This agreement made and entered into on this 15th day of July, 1971, by and between Leonard C. George and Martha Louella George, hereinafter referred to as Plaintiff and Defendant.

Whereas the Plaintiff, Leonard C. George, has filed a complaint asking for an absolute divorce from the Defendant on the 26th day of May, 1971, and,

Whereas, the parties hereto desire to settle and adjust their property rights subject to the approval of the Court trying said cause, they agree as follows:

1. The Plaintiff will agree to pay $50.00 per week as alimony to the Defendant, said amount to be reserved in Court for future orders pending change of circumstances of the parties, first payment due and payable July 22, 1971.

2. Plaintiff conveys all of his interest in and to a Pontiac automobile being license number 2-N6301 to the Defendant as her sole and separate property.

3. The Plaintiff agrees to give the Defendant several items of personal property, including an iron, sewing machine and dishes.

4. The Plaintiff agrees to include the Defendant on his hospitalization policy only for as long as she pays the premium for her portion of this policy.

5. The Plaintiff will pay an attorney fee in the amount of $250.00 to the Honorable John R. Parker, attorney for the Defendant and will pay said amount at the rate of $25.00 per week until said amount is paid.

6. That all other property owned by the parties, real and personal, will by the decree divest from the Defendant, Martha Louella George, any interest she may have in such property and will vest in Plaintiff, Leonard C. George, as his sole and separate property.

7. The Defendant will withdraw her answer filed in the above titled matter and this matter to be placed on the non-contested docket and the Plaintiff to obtain an uncontested divorce if he be entitled to one on proof adduced at the hearing.

8. The Defendant will enter an order dismissing her action for divorce filed against the Plaintiff, said action filed May 25, 1971, being docket number 62514.

All of the foregoing is accordingly ordered and decreed.
