ORDER

This cause came on to be heard on the 1st day of July, 1987, before the Honorable James R. Everett, Jr., Judge of the Probate Court for Davidson County, Tennessee upon the Motions of the Co-Conservators for the Estate of Lucille Dodd Thomas and the Executor of the Estate of Jim Ben Thomas, to be allowed to transfer certain real property hereinafter more fully described to J. B. Thomas Company, Inc., and J. B. Thomas Manufacturing Company, Inc., statement of counsel, statement of the Guardian Ad Litem George Duzane. From all of which the Court finds that the land described in Exhibit A was owned by J. B. Thomas Company, Inc. in the year 1979 and that the company owed Jim Ben Thomas the sum of $20,000.00. The Court further finds that Jim Ben Thomas, Sr., relieved the corporation of that corporate obligation and transfered Exhibit A to J. B. Thomas and wife, Lucille Dodd Thomas. That a certain cause of action exists in the Chancery Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, styled William H. Allen, et al versus J. B. Thomas, deceased, et al, Rule No. 86-273-I, wherein certain minority shareholders of the J. B. Thomas Company aver, among other complaints, the complaint that this land described in Exhibit A was transferred for inadequate consideration. The Court is of he opinion and so finds that the land described in Exhibit A should be transferred from the Estate of Jim Ben Thomas and Lucille Dodd Thomas back to the corporation J. B. Thomas Company, Inc., and that the corporation should execute its note to the Estate of Jim Ben Thomas, Sr. and Lucille Dodd Thomas for $20,000.00, plus interest at the legal rate from 1979 to the present.

The Court further finds that Jim Ben Thomas and wife, Lucille Dodd Thomas, own two tracts of land on White's Creek Pike in Davidson County, Tennessee, and that said land, Exhibit B, was acquired the 20th day of July, 1955 and Exhibit C was acquired the 17th day of June, 1955, the property being purchased on installment deeds. The Court finds that the property was actually paid for from the proceeds of monies drawn on J. B. Thomas Manufacturing Company, Inc., and that no debit was taken by J. B. Thomas and Lucille Dodd Thomas. The taxes for this real estate have been paid by J. B. Thomas Manufacturing Company, Inc. The subject real property is subject to a present lease between J. B. Thomas Manufacturing Company, Inc. and Airco, Inc.

The Court further finds that the owner of all of the stock of J. B. Thomas Company, Inc. and J. B. Thomas Manufacturing Company, Inc. is in the Estate of Jim Ben Thomas, Sr., except for approximately three (3%) per cent minority shareholders in J. B. Thomas Company, Inc., and that the beneficiary of the two aforementioned corporations is a trust established by Jim Ben Thomas, individually, for the use and benefit of Lucille Dodd Thomas for the remainder of her life.

It is, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the land described in Exhibit A should be transferred by Court Order from the Executor of Estate of Jim Ben Thomas and the Co-Conservators of Lucille Dodd Thomas to J. B. Thomas Company, Inc.

2. That the land described in Exhibit B and Exhibit C shall be transferred from the Estate of Jim Ben Thomas, Sr., and the Estate of Lucille Dodd Thomas to J. B. Thomas Manufacturing Company, Inc.

3. That the Guardian Ad Litem George Duzane shall receive from the Conservatorship of Lucille Dodd Thomas, the sum of $ 750.00 for his favorable services.

4. Costs of the cause are taxed to the Estate.
