FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard August 4, 1987, before the Honorable James R. Everett, Jr., Judge of the Probate Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original complaint filed by the plaintiff/wife, a judgment by default entered against the defendant/husband, the defendant/husband being in open court and consenting for this case to go forward without any objection on his part for additional time in which to plead or answer, affidavits of plaintiff's two corroborating witnesses, testimony of the plaintiff/wife, and the entire record in this cause, from all of which the court was of the opinion that the allegations contained in the orginal decree were fully sustained, that is that the defendant/husband has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward the plaintiff/wife as to render further cohabitation unsafe and improper.

It is therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff/wife be, and she is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant/husband and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff/wife will pay one-half (1/2) of the outstanding mortgage indebtedness on the 1987 Toyota truck, and that whatever right, title or interest she has or may have in the same is hereby divested out of her and vested in the defendant/husband as his sole and separate property.

3773 08/20 9.00- CASH

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the defendant/husband be, and he is hereby awarded the following items of personalty as his sole and separate property:

Organ
Piano
Musical and stereo equipment
Furnishings in his room, including his clothes and ample linens
All lawn and garden equipment purchased during the marriage, except the tractor
Two of the three cherry china cabinets purchased during the marriage.

All the rest and residue of the property, both personal and real is hereby awarded to the plaintiff/wife as her sole and separate property, and whatever right, title or interest that the defendant/husband has or may have in the same is hereby divested out of him and vested in the plaintiff/wife, including her homeplace located at 7474 Whites Creek Pike, Joelton, Tennessee, as her sole property.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the defendant/husband be, and he is hereby permanently enjoined from going about the plaintiff/wife bothering, harming, molesting or harassing her at any time or at any place, and although he is allowed thirty (30) days from the date of this decree to move from the premises, he will also be enjoined and restrained during this period of time from going about the plaintiff for the purpose of bothering, harming, harassing, or molesting her.

The plaintiff will pay the costs of this cause for which execution may issue, if necessary.

ENTER this 5th day of August, 1987.
