LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

WB 159 pg. 661

JEAN MURRAY PETRO

BOOK 7338 PAGE 166

I, JEAN MURRAY PETRO, of Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, declare and publish this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other Wills and Codicils, including any and all Wills and Codicils in my own handwriting, heretofore made by me.

ITEM I: I direct that my Executor, hereinafter named, pay all of my just debts, including medical bills and funeral expenses, as soon after my death as may be convenient. I further direct that my Executor shall pay any and all estate, inheritance or succession taxes, whether State or Federal, or both, which might be assessed against my estate, out of the estate itself, and the said taxes are not to be prorated or charged against any specific bequest or beneficiary under the terms of this Will.

ITEM II: It is my will and testament, wish and desire that I be buried in my family plot in Calvary Cemetery, Nashville, Tennessee. I direct that my Executor erect a suitable headstone upon my grave similar to that upon the graves of the other members of my family.

ITEM III: It is my desire that Father Vincent Hines offer the funeral Mass on the occasion of my death, and it is my specific request that the services on this occasion be a Low Mass. In the event that Father Hines is unable to perform such services, it is my request that Father James Murray do so, and in the event that neither Father Hines nor Father Murray are not able to perform the services for my funeral, then I request that Father Charles Giacoso render such services. I bequeath to whomever renders the Mass at my funeral the sum of ONE HUNDRED AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($100.00)

 Jean Murray Petro

ITEM IV: I give, devise and bequeath to my niece, Joan Murray Galanti, my little finger ring with the blue sets, the portrait of my mother and the portrait of her father, Nenon Murray Galanti, that is in my possession.

ITEM V: I give, devise and bequeath to Father John Higgins the sum of ONE HUNDRED AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($100.00) In the event that he should predecease me, then and in that event this legacy is to lapse and automatically revert to the residue of my estate, and I then give, devise and bequeath the said sum of ONE HUNDRED AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($100.00) to the American Catholic Foreign Missions Society or Maryknoll Fathers, of Maryknoll, New York.

ITEM VI. I give, devise and bequeath to Mary L. Chenault of Nashville, Tennessee, my one-half undivided interest in the house and lot located at 1035 Edwin Warner Drive, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, together with all clothing, jewelry, household goods, furnishings, furniture, pictures, silver and other articles of personal use not herein specifically otherwise devised.

I further give, devise and bequeath any automobile which I may own at the time of my death to Mary L. Chenault.

ITEM VII: In the event the above said Mary L. Chenault predecease me, or dies within thirty days of my death, or if we should die simultaneously as a result of a common diaster, or under such circumstances as renders it difficult to determine which of us survived, then I give, devise and bequeath my one-half undivided interest in the house and lot described in Item VI, as well as all the articles of personal property, including the automobile referred to in Item VI, to my Executor, hereinafter named, with the complete power to sell and dispose of the same upon such terms and conditions as shall appear to be in the best interest of my estate and as my Executor shall see fit. I do hereby devise and bequeath all of the proceeds from said sale to my grandnephews and grandnieces in equal shares, per stirpes.

 Joan Murray Petro

ITEM VIII: I hereby nominate and appoint David M. Pack of Nashville, Tennessee as the Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, without bond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have executed this my Last Will and Testament, consisting of three pages, each of which is identified by my signature thereon, this 9th day of October, 1981.
