Will

OF

MARY ELIZABETH STILES

DAVIDSON COUNTY, TN.
DEC 2 12 13 AM '87

IDENTIFICATION REFERENCE

86865

I, Mary Elizabeth Stiles, a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, do make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all Wills heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I.

My nieces, Martha Stiles Compton and Elizabeth Ann (Betty) Stiles Montgomery, shall select and keep our family heirloom pieces, including my china and silver, as well as my collections of pitchers and bric-a-brac. If there is any disagreement as to any particular items, they shall draw lots for an impartial decision. If either of them be deceased so that the two of them cannot choose, then I charge the one serving as Executrix to make as equal a division as is possible, and the things which would have gone to the other shall go to her children, share and share alike, or to the survivors or survivor thereof.

There may be found with my Will a list of items and the names of the persons to whom the items are to go. I charge my Executrix to carry out my wishes as expressed in said list as if it were set out herein, verbatim. The specific bequest hereinabove shall not be included in the list, but where there is an apparent conflict, the list shall take precedence.

ARTICLE II.

I leave to the discretion of my Executrix the choice of the source of funds from my estate from which shall be paid all of my legal obligations which are not secured by lien or mortgage, the expenses of my final illness, the cost of my funeral, the placing of a foot marker at my grave, and any and all taxes arising by reason of my death.

Further, I will have made a pledge to my church for the budget needs, and additionally I may have an unpaid balance on a "Venture in Faith" pledge. My Executrix shall pay these items in full as obligations of my estate.

In addition thereto, there shall be paid to my church the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars to be used as the church sees fit.

There shall be paid to the Tennessee Baptist Foundation the sum of Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars as a general bequest, to be used as the Trustees may elect.

ARTICLE III.

Any car which I may own and my house shall be sold, and the proceeds from the sale shall become a part of my residuary estate. There is an amount of life insurance payable to my estate, and this shall be available to my Executrix for the purposes set out in ARTICLE II, with the remainder, if any, being a part of my residuary estate. Any property of any kind whatsoever, whether real, personal or mixed, shall be a part of my residuary estate, and my tangible personal property not otherwise disposed of shall be disposed of at the discretion of my Executrix.

ARTICLE IV.

The rest and remainder of my estate referred to hereinafter as

 Mary Elizabeth Stiles

"residuary estate" shall be distributed as follows:

One-third (1/3) shall go to my niece, Martha Stiles Compton, if she survives me. Should she be deceased, this share shall go to her descendants, per stirpes.

One-third (1/3) shall go to my niece, Elizabeth Ann (Betty) Stiles Montgomery, if she survives me, but if she be deceased, this share shall go to her descendants, per stirpes.

One-third (1/3) shall go to my sister-in-law, Clementine Frye Stiles, if she survives me. Should she be deceased, this shall go to increase the shares of my nieces equally and/or their descendants in the same manner as the bequests hereinabove.

ARTICLE V.

"Executrix" shall refer to the singular or the plural as is applicable.

I nominate and appoint my nieces, Martha Stiles Compton and Elizabeth Ann (Betty) Stiles Montgomery to serve as Executrix of my estate. If either of them be deceased or be unable, unwilling or cease to serve, then the other shall serve. No bond shall be required of them or of either of them.

The Executrix shall be excused from a requirement to provide an inventory, and may do any and all things to expedite the settlement
