This cause having come on to be heard the 13th day of February, 1978, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, Fourth Circuit Court, Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the pleadings, testimony of Plaintiff and witnesses in open court, from a judgment of default duly taken and entered against Defendant, and upon the entire record;

From all of which the Court finds that Defendant, Henry Tramel Monk, has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment towards Complainant, Louise Lilley Monk, as to render cohabitation unsafe and improper and to render it unsafe and improper for her to continue under his dominion and control;

It is accordingly ordered, adjudged and decreed that Louise Lilley Monk is granted an absolute divorce from Henry Tramel Monk and is herewith restored to all the rights of an unmarried person.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that Complainant is granted absolute custody of the minor children of the parties, Stephen Kennedy Monk and Andrew Dewey Monk.

It is further ordered and decreed that all Defendant's right, title and interest in and to the parties' home at 209 Fall Street, being specifically:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being the west one-half of Lot No. 7 on the Map of Sneed and Hamilton's Resubdivision of Certain Lots in First Subdivision of Brownsville, as of record in Book 161, page 149, Register's Office for said County.
> Said part of said lot fronts 50 feet on the north side of Fall Street and runs back between parallel lines 150 feet to an alley.

is divested out of him and into Complainant, Louise Lilley Monk, in fee simple. All the parties household furnishings located at 209 Fall Street are also vested out of Defendant and into Complainant.

It is further ordered and decreed that all of Defendant's right, title and interest in and to the following life insurance policies is divested out of him and into Complainant, Louise Lilley Monk, and the Defendant shall hereafter have no control over said policies whatsoever, but full ownership and control of said policies is vested in Complainant:

1. National Life and Accident Insurance Company, Policy No. 69597522, issued July 2, 1969, Face Amount $2,000.00

2. National Life and Accident Insurance Company, Policy No. 5847-601-023, issued November 24, 1958, in the amount of $1,500.00

3. Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, a reducing term policy. Policy No. 680-403-855A, with present face amount of approximately $5,000.00.

Defendant shall pay $40.00 per week ($173.20 per month) for the support of the minor children of the parties and said amount shall be paid to the Circuit Court Clerk of Davidson County, Tennessee, on the first and fifteenth days of each month, with each of said payments being in the amount of $86.60. After deducting a five percent fee, the clerk shall forthwith pay said amount to the Complainant. The first such payment shall be due February 15, 1978.

In addition to the aforesaid payments, Defendant shall pay medical bills, including optometrist and ophthalmology bills, for Andrew Dewey upon presentation of same for payment by Complainant.

The temporary restraining order against Defendant previously issued by this Court is herewith made permanent, and Defendant is restrained from removing the minor children from the care and custody of Complainant and from going about either Complainant or the minor children for the purpose of harassing and molesting them anywhere and in any way and from removing any items of personalty from the parties' home at 209 Fall Street.

Defendant shall pay the costs of this cause, for ~~which~~ execution may issue.
