Being the same property conveyed to H & P Properties by deed from George G. Creagh of record in Book 7103, page 298, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

4. LAND INCLUDED IN PROPERTY. The land included in the property is also described in Exhibit "A" hereto which is made a part hereof by reference. Said land will sometimes be referred to as the "Property" or Hobbs/Wallace. The fee simple absolute title in such land is hereby vested in the horizontal property regime hereby established.

5. THE BUILDING AND GROUND AREA. The regime consists of one building, containing two condominium units, which are of one story design. Each unit will consist of three bedrooms, living room, dining room, two and one-half baths and a garage. The square footage for the aforesaid units is reflected on the Plan attached hereto as Exhibit "A". The ground area consists of a lawn, a concrete parking area and driveway serving each unit.

The building is of concrete block foundation and a wood frame construction with brick veneer exterior. Ceilings are dry-wall on wood frame construction. Interior walls are dry-wall on wood frame construction. The exterior walls have 3-1/2 inch (full thick) batt insulation. The units are centrally heated by gas, and electrically air conditioned with individual controls in each unit. Each unit has an individual 50 gallon gas water heater.

6. UNITS. Exhibit "A" shows the location and anticipated number of square feet of the apartment units and their respective apartment numbers. The word unit and apartment have the same meaning throughout this master deed and by-laws appended hereto, and are used interchangeably.

7. DIMENSIONS OF APARTMENT. Each apartment consists of the area measured horizontally from the apartment side of the dry-wall of the walls facing the exterior of the building to the dry-wall of the opposite exterior wall or if applicable to the apartment side of the dry-wall of the wall and partition separating such apartment from the other apartment; where dry-wall or paneling separates one room in an apartment from another such room, from one side of each room wall to the other side of such room's opposite wall. Vertically, each apartment consists of the space between the first floor and its ceiling.

8. USE OF APARTMENTS. Each of the apartments shall be used as a single family residence only.

9. COMMON ELEMENTS AND LIMITED COMMON ELEMENTS. The common elements consist of the entire property, including all parts of the buildings other than the apartments and including, without limitation, the following:

(a) The land, including privacy fences and shrubbery.

(b) All foundations, columns, girders, beams and supports.

(c) All roofs; all exterior walls of the building and not including the portions thereof on the apartment side of the dry-wall or paneling of such walls; and the portions between the apartment sides of walls and partitions between apartments; and all floors and ceilings. No co-owner shall be deemed to own the undecorated and/or unfinished surfaces of the perimeter walls, floors, ceilings, windows and doors bounding his apartment, nor shall such co-owner be deemed to own the utilities (without limitation) running through his apartment which are utilized for, or serve more than one apartment, except as a right in common to share the same with the other co-owners. A co-owner, however, shall be deemed to own and shall have the exclusive right at his expense to paint, repaint, tile, paper or otherwise refinish and decorate the inner surfaces of the walls, floors, ceilings, windows and doors bounding his apartment.

(d) All yards.

(e) All sewer pipes and other utility pipes or lines, (excluding pipes defined as limited common elements).

(f) Limited common elements are defined as those common elements which are reserved for the use of a certain apartment or apartments to the exclusion of the other apartments. The patios and stoops, which serve individual apartments are limited common elements for the exclusive use of the sole co-owner whose apartment they serve. All utility systems and utilities pipes, i.e., plumbing inside walls of a building, which serve one unit only are limited common elements. Cable TV interior wiring or connections are also limited common elements serving that particular unit. The attic space and crawl space serving each unit is a limited common element for the respective unit which it serves. The parking and drive serving each unit is a limited common element for the respective unit which it serves.

(g) The interest of each co-owner in the common elements is an equal one-half undivided interest.

10. ENCROACHMENTS. If any portion of the common elements now encroaches upon any apartment, or if any apartment now encroaches upon any other apartment or upon any portion of the common elements, as a result of the construction of a building or any building, or if any such encroachment shall occur hereafter as a result of settling or shifting, a valid easement for the encroachment and for the maintenance of the same so long as such building stands, shall exist. In the event such building, an apartment, any adjoining apartment, or any adjoining common element, shall be partially or totally destroyed as a result of fire or other casualty or as a result of condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, and then rebuilt, encroachments of parts of the common elements upon any apartment or of any apartment upon any other apartment or upon any portion of the common elements, due to such rebuilding, shall be permitted, and valid easements for such encroachments and the maintenance thereof shall exist so long as any such building shall stand.

11. PIPES, DUCTS, CABLES, WIRES, CONDUITS, PUBLIC UTILITY LINES AND OTHER COMMON ELEMENTS LOCATED INSIDE OF APARTMENT. Each apartment owner shall have an easement in common with the owners of all other apartments to use all pipes, wires, ducts, cables, conduits, public utility lines and other common elements located in any of the other apartments and serving his apartment. Each apartment shall be subject to an easement in favor of the owners of all other apartments to use the pipes, ducts, cables (television, communication or otherwise), wires, conduits, public utility lines and other common elements serving such other apartments and located in such apartment. The Board of Managers shall have a right of access to each apartment to inspect same, to remove violations therefrom and to maintain, repair or replace the common elements contained therein or elsewhere in any building.

12. APARTMENTS SUBJECT TO MASTER DEED. All present and furture co-owners and tenants of apartments shall be subject to and shall comply with the provisions of this Master Deed and the By-Laws appended hereto. The acceptance of a deed of conveyance, devise, inheritance or the entering into of a lease of an apartment or entering into occupancy of an apartment, shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of this Master Deed and such By-Law provisions are accepted and ratified by each co-owner and tenant, and all of such provisions shall be deemed and taken to be covenants running with the land and shall bind any person having at any time any interest or estate in such apartment, as though such provisions were recited and stipulated in full in each and every deed or lease thereof.

13. APARTMENTS SUBJECT TO BY-LAWS AND RULES AND REGULATIONS. All present and future co-owners, tenants and occupants of an apartment shall be subject to, and shall comply with, the provisions of the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations appended hereto and recorded herewith, pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 66-27-111, as they may be amended from time to time. The acceptance of a deed of conveyance, devise or of a lease to an apartment, or the entering into occupancy of any apartment shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of the said By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as they may be amended from time to time, are accepted and ratified by such co-owner, tenant or occupant, and all of such provision shall be deemed and taken to be covenants running with the land and shall bind any person having at any time any interest or estate in such apartment, as though such provisions were recited and stipulated at length in each and every deed, conveyance or lease, thereof.

14. AMENDMENT. This Master Deed may be amended by a deed of amendment joined in by co-owners representing at least sixty-seven (67%) percent of the total then existing apartments in the horizontal property regime, which deed shall be recorded in the Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee.

15. WAIVER. No provision contained in this Master Deed shall be deemed to have been abrogated or waived by reason of any failure to enforce it, regardless of the number of violations or breaches which may occur.

The term of office of the members of the Board of Managers shall be fixed at two years. At the expiration of the initial term of office of each respective member of the Board of Managers, his successors shall be elected to serve for a term of two (2) years. The members of the Board of Managers shall hold office until their respective successors shall have been elected by the co-owners.

SECTION 4. Removal of Members of the Board of Managers. After the term of office of the initial Board of Managers shall have terminated, as provided in Section 1 of this Article II, at any regular or special meeting of the co-owners, any one or more of the members of the Board of Managers may be removed with or without cause by a majority of the co-owners and a successor may then and there or thereafter be elected to fill the vacancy thus created. Any member of the Board of Managers whose removal has been proposed to any assemby of co-owners shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the hearing.

SECTION 5. Vacancies. Vacancies in the Board of Managers caused by any reason other than the removal of a member thereof by the co-owners shall be filled by a vote of a majority of the remaining members at a special meeting of the Board of Managers held for that purpose promptly after the occurrence of any such vacancy, and each person so elected shall be a member of the Board of Managers for the remainder of the term of the member so removed and until a successor shall be elected at the next annual meeting of the co-owners.

If all the members of the Board of Managers are present at any meeting of the Board, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

SECTION 10. Quorum of Board of Managers. At all meetings of the Board of Managers, a majority of the members thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the votes of a majority of the members of the Board of Managers present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the decision of the Board of Managers. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called, may be transacted without further notice.

SECTION 11. Liability of the Board of Managers. The members of the Board of Managers shall not be liable to the co-owners for any mistake of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except for their own individual wilful misconduct or bad faith. The co-owners shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the members of the Board of Managers against all contractual liability to others arising out of contracts made by the Board of Managers on behalf of the Condominium unless any such contract shall have been made in bad faith or contrary to the provisions of the Master Deed or of these By-Laws. It is intended that the members of the Board of Managers shall have no personal liability with respect to any contract made by them on behalf of the Condominium. It is also intended that the liability of any co-owner arising out of any contract made by the Board of Managers or out of the aforesaid indemnity in favor of the members of the Board of Managers shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder, as his interest in the common elements bears to the interest of all the co-owners in the common elements. Every agreement made by the Board of Managers or by the managing agent or by the manager on behalf of the Condominium shall provide that the members of the Board of Managers or the managing agent, or the manager, as the case may be, are acting only as agents for the council of co-owners and shall have no personal liability thereunder (except as co-owners), and that each co-owner's liability thereunder shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his interest in the common elements bears to the interest of all co-owners in the common elements.

SECTION 12. Rules and Regulations. The rules and regulations attached to these By-Laws as Exhibit "1" shall be the rules and regulations relating to the use and occupancy until such time as a majority of the Board of Managers, pursuant to the power stated in Section 2(e) of Article II hereof, shall amend them or adopt new ones.

SECTION 13. Declaration of Default. Board of Managers, then the Secretary of the Board of Managers shall send written notice of such default to such co-owner and if such default is not cured to the satisfaction of such Secretary within a reasonable time (not in excess of two weeks from the date of sending notice), then the Secretary shall proceed to enforce the remedies given herein and by law.

SECTION 9. Majority Vote. The vote of a majority of the votes of the co-owners at a meeting at which a quorum shall be present shall be binding upon all co-owners for all purposes except where the laws of the State of Tennessee relating to horizontal property regimes, the Master Deed or these By-Laws require a higher percentage vote or a different method of voting. The Board of Managers shall determine the amount of the common charges payable by the co-owners to meet the expenses of administration and of maintenance and repair of the general common elements, and, in the proper case, of the limited common elements of the property, and any other expenses lawfully agreed upon; and the Board of Managers shall allocate and assess such common charges equally among the co-owners, but the Board of Managers is not bound to make such allocation with respect to charges that would be unfairly allocated on such basis. The Board may determine different allocations. The allocations shall be applied uniformly to all owners of like situations. The common expenses shall include, among other things, the cost of all insurance premiums on all policies of insurance required to be or which have been obtained by the Board of Managers pursuant to the provisions of Section 2 of this Article V and the fees and disbursements of the Insurance Trustee, or, at the option of the Board, the insurance may be billed individually, apart from the monthly common expenses The common expenses may also include such an amount for working capital of the Condominium, for a general operating reserve, for a reserve fund for replacements, and to make up any deficit in the common expenses for any prior year. The Board of Managers shall furnish copies of each budget on which such common charges are based, to all co-owners and their mortgagees.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent the Board of Managers from serving as Insurance Trustee. All policies of physical damage insurance shall contain waivers of subrogation and waivers of any defense based on co-insurance or of invalidity arising from any acts of the insured, and shall provide that such policies may not be cancelled or substantially modified without at least ten (10) days prior written notice to all of the insureds, including all mortgagees of apartments.
