LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT BOOK 7710 PAGE 696

I, Elizabeth H. Christie, of Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory and realizing the uncertainty of life, do hereby make and publish this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils thereto by me at any time heretofore made.

Item I: I desire and direct that my funeral expenses, all of my just debts and all estate and inheritance taxes arising by reason of my death be first paid out of any funds left by me at my death, and in the event sufficient funds are not left by me for the payment thereof, I hereby aurhorize and empower my Executrix, at her discretion, to sell such of my property, personal or real, disposing first of any perishable property, as is necessary for the payment thereof.

Item II: I direct my Executrix to select and provide a monument for my grave if I have not done so prior to my death, expending therefor a sum consistent with the size of my estate and my station in life.

Item III: I give, devise and bequeath my home located at 5925 Long Meadow Road, Nashville, Tennessee 37205 to my son, William Maxwell Christie, III.

Item IV: I give, devise and bequeath all of my right, title and interest, being an undivided one-fourth (1/4th) interest, in and to the business property known as C Christies, 2204 Crestmoor Road, Nashville, Tennessee 37215, to my daughter, Mary Candace Worsham, with the provisions that in the event that the property is sold during the lifetimes of my daughter, Catherine Payge Slaton, and my son, William Maxwell Christie, III, or the survivor of them, Mary Candace Worsham is hereby directed to pay the sale proceeds, after the payment of all expenses of sale and after the satisfaction of all encumbrances affecting the property, of whatever origin and whenever imposed, attributable to my said interest, but not more than $100,000.00, to Catherine Payge Slaton and William Maxwell Christie, III, each one-half (1/2), or to the survivor of them. Mary Candace Worsham shall have the right and power to deal with my said interest as if she were the sole owner thereof, her judgement being conclusive, and to execute all legal documents affecting my said interest, including but not limited to leases, contracts for sale, deeds of trust and deeds, without the joinder of either Catherine Payge Slaton or William Maxwell Christie, III, all third parties being hereby exonerated from any obligation relative to the application of funds.

Item V: I give, devise and bequeath all property which I own or have the right to dispose of at my death and which remains after the payments directed in Item I hereof, the expenditure directed in Item II hereof and the bequests in Items III and IV hereof, of whatever kind, character and description, real, personal, intangible and mixed, and wherever situation, to Mary Candace Worsham, Catherine Payge Slaton and William Maxwell Christie, III, each one-third (1/3).

Elizabeth H. Christie

Item VI: I nominate and appoint Mary Candace Worsham Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament and I authorize Mary Candace Worsham, Executrix, to do any and all things which in her opinion is necessary to complete the administration and settlement of my estate. Without in any way limiting the scope of the powers enumerated herein of my Executrix, I hereby specifically give to her the right and power to exercise any or all of those powers set forth in T.C.A. 35-618, Subsections 1-32, inclusive, as fully as if said powers were expressly set forth herein. In the execution of said duties and powers said Executrix shall have the power to comply with all legal requirements as to the execution and delivery of deeds and all other writings, documents, or formalities without the order of any court. I direct that no bond be required of Mary Candace Worsham as Executrix.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name this March 29-86 day of March, 1986.

Elizabeth H. Christie
