AT NASHVILLE

KATHLEEN PAINTER NEWMAN, PLAINTIFF,	)
VS.	)	NO. 88D-317
TED MARCUS NEWMAN, DEFENDANT.	)

DEC -7 PM 3:35

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on the 29th day of November, 1988, before the Honorable Muriel Robinson, Judge, upon the Amended and Supplemental Complaint for Absolute Divorce filed by Kathleen Painter Newman, and the Answer and Counter-Claim thereto filed by Ted Marcus Newman. Based upon the statements and argument of counsel, the testimony of the parties under oath, their witnesses, the exhibits, and the entire record, the Court finds that the grounds of Cruel and Inhuman Treatment, as alleged by the Plaintiff, Kathleen Painter Newman, have been fully proven and sustained and she should be entitled to a divorce on those grounds. The Counter Complaint for Divorce should be dismissed.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. That the Plaintiff, Kathleen Painter Newman, is hereby awarded an Absolute Divorce from Ted Marcus Newman, on the grounds of Cruel and Inhuman Treatment and the parties are restored to all rights and privileges of unmarried persons.

2. That the sole and permanent custody of the parties' two (2) minor children, Ted Marcus Newman, II, and Michael James Newman, is vested in Ms. Newman, with reasonable rights of visitation as is normally set by this Court, granted to the father, Ted Marcus Newman, those rights of visitation being as follows: visitation shall be every other weekend commencing at 6:00 P.M. on Friday and ending at 6:00 P.M. on Sunday evening and, he shall be allowed visitation on Wednesday nights from 6:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M. Holiday visitation will include Mother's Day with the children to be with the Mother, and Father's Day with the children to be with the Father, and all other holidays (Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, and Easter) to be alternated each year between the parties. Christmas Holidays will be divided between the parties. One parent shall exercise visitation for one week before Christmas until 8:30 P.M. on Christmas Eve with the children and the other parent shall have the children from 8:30 P.M. on Christmas Eve for one week after Christmas, with this Christmas schedule to be alternated each year between the parties. The Wife shall exercise Christmas visitation with the parties' minor children for the year 1988 for one week before Christmas until 8:30 P.M. on Christmas Eve, and Husband shall exercise visitation from 8:30 P.M. Christmas Eve for one (1) week thereafter. Thereafter, each year, Christmas Holidays shall be alternated as above set out. The children's birthdays will be split between the parties each year. The Husband is hereby granted extended summertime visitation of two (2) weeks during the summer with the children and the previous weekend and weekday visitation as hereinabove set out shall be exercised by the Wife during the extended summer visitation.

3. For the next ninety (90) days, Mr. Newman is Ordered to pay the sum of Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) per month as child support. Thereafter, child support shall be fixed at the rate of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per month, and shall continue until such time as the youngest child shall attain his eighteenth (18th) birthday or shall graduate from high school with his graduating class, whichever event last occurs, or until further Orders of this Court. Unless approved by this Court, such support shall not be reduced nor prorated. There is an arrearage of Three Hundred Seventy Five Dollars ($375.00) regarding temporary support at the present time, and Mr. Newman is Ordered to catch up that arrearage immediately.

4. The current address and social security numbers of the parties are as follows:
