FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard on the 20th day of January, 1989 before the Honorable Joe P. Binkley, Jr., Special Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee on the Complaint, the Default Judgment taken after the Defendant was personally served and failed to answer within the time provided by law, statements of counsel, the testimony of witnesses in open court, and the record as a whole, from all of which it duly appeared to the Court that Plaintiff is entitled to an absolute divorce on the ground that the Wife is guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards the Husband as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper. The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have custody of the parties' minor child, that the Defendant is able-bodied and owes a duty to provide support for the parties' minor child, that Defendant's visitation rights should be determined upon her application to the Court for such rights, that Defendant should be permanently enjoined from molesting, harassing, threatening or abusing the Plaintiff, or from interferring with his custody of the minor child or with the child's grandparents while the child is visiting with them, and that any interest which the Defendant might have or claim in the parties home at 185 Brenda Court, Anttoch, Davidson County, Tennessee and in the furniture, furnishings and personal property on the premises, should be divested out of the Defendant and reinvested in the Plaintiff.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED as follows: the Plaintiff is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the Defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person. The Plaintiff is hereby awarded the exclusive care, custody and control of the parties' minor child, Ryan Phillip Thomas Primm, and the issue of the Defendant's visitation rights with the child is reserved, pending her application.

The Defendant is hereby ORDERED to pay the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per week as child support, plus the clerk's lawful commission of five percent (5%) or Two and 50/100 Dollars ($2.50), a total of Fifty-two and 50/100 Dollars ($52.50) per week, through the Office of the Circuit Court Clerk, Fifth Floor, Metropolitan Courthouse, Nashville, Tennessee. Any interest which the Defendant might have or claim, including but not limited to homestead or equity, in the parties' home at185 Brenda Court, Antioch, Tennessee 37013 is hereby divested out of the Defendant and vested in the Plaintiff.
