Exhibit A

This property was acquired by E.A. Robertson Sr. by deed of record in Deed Book 731, page 49 in the Davidson County Register's Office. Upon his death in Davidson County in 1949 he devised the property (see Will Book 63, page 286) to his wife, Mary A. Robertson, who by deed of record in Book 2244, page 441 conveyed it to her four children, Winifred Engelman, Vivian McCown, Mary Rees and Edward A. Robertson Jr. Winifred Engelman died intestate in 1966, survived by two children, John R. Engelman and James Engelman. James Engelman died intestate in 1966, unmarried and without issue, and his interest passed to his brother, John R. Engelman, who is thus vested with a ¼ interest in the property. Vivian McCown, by her will of record in Will Book 90, page 245, in the office of the Davidson County Chancery Court Clerk, devised her interest to her husband, Frank E. McCown Sr. Mary Rees, by her will of record in Will Book 11, page 537 in the office of the Chancery Court Clerk for Lincoln County, Tennessee, devised her interest to her husband, James H. Rees. James H. Rees, by his will of record in Will Book 12, page 426 in the office of Lincoln County Chancery Court Clerk, devised that interest in equal shares to his brother-in-law Edward A. Robertson Jr.; to his sister Katherine Smith, who predeceased him, leaving two children, Martha McBride and Frank R. Smith; and to the four children of his brother, Helen Rees Janele, Mary Rees Nishio, Joe M. Rees and Ernest Rees III. Thus Edward A. Robertson Jr. acquired 1/3 of Mary Rees's ¼ interest to add to the ¼ he already had. Martha McBride and Frank R. Smith divided equally 1/3 of Mary's ¼ interest, and therefore each now holds a 1/24 interest. Helen Rees Janele, Mary Rees Nishio, Joe M. Rees and Ernest Rees III similarly divided equally 1/3 of Mary's ¼, and therefore each now holds a 1/48 interest in the realty. Edward A. Robertson Jr. died in 1987 and his will of record in Will Book 51, page 135 in the office of the Chancery Court Clerk for Williamson County, Tennessee, named his wife, Rose A. Robertson, as executrix with power to allocate assets to a testamentary trust. This allocation was made by instrument from her to Edward Robertson, trustee, of record in Book 7679, page 836, Davidson County Register's Office.

Reference is also made to a correction deed of record in Book 5569, page 234 in said Register's Office.

The wills of Mary Rees and James H. Rees are of record in the Davidson County Register's Office in Book 7770, pages 248 and 246, respectively.
