STATE OF TENNESSEE

COUNTY OF DAVIDSON

Wilhelmina Holt, having first been duly sworn, makes oath and says:

1. John Elmore died intestate in Davidson County, Tennessee, on November 18, 1969, owner in fee of the following described tract or parcel of land:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee fronting approximately 140 feet along the South side of New Goins Road and extending back between parallel lines 80 feet, more or less, to a dead line on the North side of Old Goins Road and bounded on the North by New Goins Road; East by Joe Watson; South and West by Old Goins Road.

2. John Elmore was married to Affiant's grandmother who predeceased John Elmore. John Elmore had no other living heirs and all his insurance policies were made to Affiant as beneficiary.

3. John Elmore used the above described property as his principal residence and Affiant who is 88 years of age has lived in the Goins Road neighborhood all her life; knew John Elmore and the fact that no one purporting to be an heir at law came around him or visited.

4. Affiant has been in exclusive and uninterrupted possession of the property in question for a period of more than twenty (20) years, claiming the same for her own, without any account with any other person who may claim any title or any interest therein.

5. Affiant's occupancy of the property in question has been by permission, either actual or implied, of other persons who may claim any title or any interest therein.

6. Affiant has paid the property taxes or caused them to be paid; has kept the property clear of weeds or debris and has maintained same in a manner consistent with ownership and has made no accounting with any person who may claim any title or any interest therein.
