Obituary

Mrs. Ada Edmondson Davis was born in Lake Providence on June 29, 1890 and departed this life Wednesday, November 29, 1972. She was reared in Lake Providence Community and was a loving and obedient child of the late Rev. Frank and Mariah Edmondson.

She professed a hope in Christ at the early age of nine and became a member of Lake Providence Baptist Church where she served faithfully under Reverends Cumbey, Swift, Harris, Moore, and Pitts. Mrs. Davis was married to Eld. Robert M. Davis who preceded her in death, February 3, 1955. To this union one daughter was born, Robbie Mae Davis.

About thirty years ago Mother Ada Davis and husband were the founders of The Church of God in Christ at Lake Providence. She served under Elders Ingrams, Ward and H. G. McCord. She was a loyal devoted member who loved her church and its members including her community church dearly. Mother Davis served on the Mother's Board until her illness. Throughout her long illness her heart stayed with the Church.

Her survivors are: a devoted daughter, Mrs. Robbie Mae Davis; a loving son-in-law, George M. Davis, Sr.; three granddaughters, Mrs. Shirley Brooks, Misses Jacqueline and Mereda Davis; two grandsons, George Jr. and Robert Davis; great grandson, William Quintin Davis; one granddaughter-in-law, Mrs. Margie Davis; one grand-son-in-law, Mr. Frank Brooks; seven first cousins; a host of relatives and friends.

A precious Mother from us has gone
A voice is death is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
That never more can be filled.
