I, JULIUS L. BAIRD, of Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore made by me.

I.

ITEM 1. It is my will and I hereby direct that my Executrix, hereinafter named, pay out of any money coming into her hands from my estate, all of my just debts, funeral and burial expenses, cost of monument, if any, and all the costs and expenses of administration of my estate, and also, any succession, inheritance or estate taxes, federal or state, and all such taxes shall be paid as charges or debts against my estate, as a whole.

II.

ITEM 2. I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Lella Page Baird, absolutely and in fee simple, all property which I own at my decease, of whatever kind, character and description, real, personal or mixed, and wheresoever situated.

 Julius L Baird

and I hereby will and direct that my said wife shall have the right to the use and enjoyment of all my property and estate as a life tenant.

In the event my said wife shall die before the expiration of the period of six months from the date of my death, or has predeceased me, then in that event I will, devise and bequeath absolutely and in fee simple, all of my property and estate of whatever kind or character, whether real, personal or mixed and wheresoever situated or found, to my son, Julius Page Baird, or to his issue per stirpes and not per capita.
