Last Will and Testament

MARY F. JOHNSON

I, MARY F. JOHNSON, of Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death and wishing to dispose of all my worldly goods, do hereby make, publish and declare this my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT in the manner and form following, hereby expressly revoking any and all previous testamentary dispositions made by me at any other time:

ITEM I:

I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, of every kind and character, unto my husband, JAMES P. JOHNSON, to be his absolutely, in fee simple and forever.

ITEM II:

In the event my said husband should predecease me or in the event we should both perish at the same time, I then give, devise and bequeath all of said property unto my children and unto his children, equally, share and share alike; provided, however, that in the event the realty is sold during my lifetime, then one-half (½) of the proceeds will be paid to the children of my husband, the said JAMES P. JOHNSON, equally, share and share alike.

ITEM III:

I hereby nominate and appoint my husband, the said JAMES P. JOHNSON, as Executor of this my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT; but, in the event he be unable to act and serve as such, I then nominate and appoint my son, DAVID BURKE, as substitute Executor of the same; and, I hereby excuse both of them from giving bond as such personal representatives.

WITNESS MY HAND this 26th day of April, 1988.

Mary F. Johnson

(MARY F. JOHNSON),
