I, J. D. Hemby, a resident of Nashville, Tennessee, do make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

I direct that all my just debts, my funeral expenses and the cost of administration of my estate, including any inheritance or succession taxes, be paid as soon as practicable after my death.

I hereby devise and bequeath all property which I may own at the time of my death, real, personal and mixed, tangible and intangible, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, including all property which I may acquire or become entitled to after the execution of this will, to my wife Rachel Hemby, if she survive me.

If and in the event my wife and I should die under such circumstances that there is not sufficient evidence to determine the order of our deaths, then it shall be presumed that she did not survive me.

If and in the event my wife shall not survive me, I then devise and bequeath all property which I may own at the time of my death, real, personal and mixed, tangible and intangible, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, including all property which I may acquire or become entitled to after the execution of this will to my children James D. Hemby, Larry R. Hemby and Janice Carolyn Bomar, share and share alike.

I appoint my wife, Rachel Hemby, to be the Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament and direct that no bond be required for the faithful performance of her duties; and I vest my said Executrix with full power and authority to sell, transfer and convey any property, real or personal, which I may own at the time of my death at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as she determine, and to do every act and thing necessary or appropriate to the complete administration ofthis will. If and in the event my wife shall not or cannot serve as the Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament I hereby nominate in her stead my son, James D. Hemby to serve,and do likewise waive any bond guarantying the faithful performance of his duties, and I further grant to him the same authority as given to my wife relating to the administration of this my Last Will and Testament.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name to this my Last Will and Testament, all in the presence of the persons witnessing it at my request on this the 21st day of June 1972 at Nashville, Tennessee.
