STATE OF TENNESSEE)

COUNTY OF DAVIDSON)

AFFIDAVIT OF HEIRSHIP

Come the Affiants, KATHRYN PARKER CLARK and MARY KATHRYN BATES, and being first duly sworn, depose and state upon their own personal knowledge that:

1. Kathryn Parker Clark's husband, and Mary Kathryn Bates' father, Lytton Justice Clark, whose usual place of residence at the time of his death was 6109 Elizabethan Drive, Nashville, Tennessee 37215, in Davidson County, died on December 1, 1986, at Nashville, Tennessee, at the age of seventy-nine (79) years.

2. On the 6th day of April, 1970, the Deceased executed his Last Will and Testament, which in all respects conformed to the statutes of the State of Tennessee, and left all of his assets to the beneficiaries, legatees and devisees therein named as per the copy attached as Exhibit #1.

3. Said will was presented for probate to the Probate Court of Davidson County (Docket No. 80043) by the Executrix, the Affiant, Mary Kathryn Bates, on May 19, 1987, was accepted as such by said Court, and was admitted to probate; and such estate was administered appropriately and closed by order of the Court on August 17, 1988, after proper distribution of the assets.

4. Except for specific monetary bequests which were satisfied prior to the closing of such estate (as evidenced by the affidavits filed with the Probate Court) the will only provided that the "rest and residue" of the estate was given, devised and bequeathed to the deceased's wife, the Affiant, Kathryn Parker Clark.

5. For the foregoing reasons legal title to the real property owned by the Decedent, Lytton Justice Clark, passed to his wife, Kathryn Parker Clark, at his death. With regard to the deeds of trust or installments deeds where amounts were still owed to Lytton Justice Clark prior to his death, however, and/or for which notes payable to or for his benefit were still outstanding at his death, and/or for which he still remained in whole or in part the equitable owner, the said Lytton Justice Clark had, prior to his death, transferred said equitable interest to his daughter, the Affiant Mary Kathryn Bates by assignment of the said notes.

6. Therefore, by virtue of inter vivos or testamentary gifts, bequests or devises of Lytton Justice Clark, all legal and equitable title and interest to all real property interests of the said Decedent held by him just prior to his death passed at his death to either his wife, Kathryn Parker Clark, or his daughter, Mary Kathryn Bates.
