FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard this 25th day of April, 1990, before the Honorable James Everett, Judge, upon all of the pleadings heretofore filed in the case. Immediately prior to the scheduled commencement of trial it was announced to the Court by counsel representing the respective parties that the parties had entered into a handwritten marital dissolution agreement and that the case would be presented to the Court upon the original complaint of the Husband and upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences. Upon motion of counsel for the Wife that her answer and original complaint be dismissed, the Court granted the motion and it is accordingly ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the answer and original complaint of the Wife be, and same are hereby, dismissed. Following the testimony of the Husband, statement of counsel representing the respective parties and the entire record, the Court is of the opinion and finds that the parties are experiencing irreconcilable differences and that the Husband should be awarded an absolute divorce from the Wife.

It is further, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that Edward L. Holloway be, and he is hereby, awarded an absolute divorce from Dorothy J. Holloway and restored to all of the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

The handwritten Marital Dissolution Agreement was entered into by and between the parties immediately prior to the scheduled trial of the case with the request that the Court approve and ratify the agreement. The Court affirmatively and expressly finds that the agreement makes a fair and equitable distribution of the marital assets of the parties and the same is ratified and approved in its entirety by the Court and made a part of this Final Decree as follows:
