FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard on the 4th day of November, 1985, before the Honorable Muriel Robinson, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the complaint filed by husband and counter-complaint filed by wife, testimony of witnesses in open court, and statement of counsel for the parties, and the record as a whole, the Court finds upon a review of all the evidence that wife's counter-complaint is fatally defective for lack of petition being sworn to, and it is therefore struck.

Further, that the husband should be granted an absolute divorce on the grounds that wife knowingly entered into this marriage in violation of a previous marriage which was still in existence at the time of the marriage and remains so at the date of the hearing.

Further, the Court finds that the equity in the homeplace is $14,000.00, and the equity shall be equally divided between husband and wife, and the homeplace shall remain with husband. However, $1,100.00 shall be deducted from wife's share of the equity for the monies she totally used without accounting for from a joint ownership account. Further, husband shall pay to wife $5,900.00 for her equity within ninety (90) days, and wife shall execute all necessary documents to transfer the homeplace solely in the name of husband.

Further, the Court finds that the parties shall equally divide all of the china which is valued at approximately $5,000.00; the two imported tables shall also be divided equally, along with all of the figurines and knick-knacks that belong to the parties. The artifacts brought from the Congo shall be exclusively the property of husband. The parties shall equally divide the eight (8) clocks brought from Germany, and husband shall be granted the privilege of selecting the four (4) he desires.

Further, the Court finds that since wife's counter-complaint was fatal, wife is not entitled to any support.

Further, the Court finds that the costs shall be paid by defendant wife. Each party shall be responsible for the payment of their respective attorney's fees.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that husband shall be granted an absolute divorce from wife on the ground that wife knowingly entered into this marriage in violation of a previous marriage stil subsisting.

It is further ORDERED that husband shall be awarded the homeplace and shall pay to wife the sum of $5,900.00 as her share of her equity in the homeplace after the subtraction of $1,100.00 due husband from wife, and said $5,900.00 payment to wife for her full share of equity in the homeplace within ninety (90) days. Wife shall execute all documents necessary to comply with this Order.

It is further ORDERED that wife and husband shall divide equally the china valued at approximately $5,000.00, the two imported tables, all of the figurines and knick-knacks, and the eight (8) clocks, with husband having the privilege of selecting the four (4) clocks he desires.

It is further ORDERED that husband shall have complete ownership of all artifacts brought from the Congo and wife shall return same immediately.

It is further ORDERED that all other personal possessions will remain in the possession of the party having physical possession.

It is further ORDERED that the costs of the cause shall be paid by defendant wife.

ENTERED this 13th day of Nov., 1985.
