Last Will and Testament

OF

NORA LEE WALLACE 6950 11/06 0101 03CHECK 9.00

* * * * * * *

I, Nora Lee Wallace, of Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament and hereby revoke all other wills or codicils thereto, heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I

I direct that my Executor, hereinafter named, pay out of my general estate, as soon as practical after my death, all my just debts, expenses of my last illness, my funeral expenses and all the expenses of administration, including any taxes that may be charged against my estate, all of the above without any allocation to or reimbursement from any devisee, legatee or beneficiary.

ARTICLE II

I hereby give, bequeath and devise all my property, both real and personal, or mixed, and wherever situate, to my husband, Herman M. Wallace, if he survives me. Should my husband predecease me or should we die in a common disaster or under circumstances which would make it impossible or difficult to determine which of us died first, then in either of such events, I give, bequeath and devise all of my property, both real and personal, and of every kind and character, to my son, Leonard McKeel Wallace.

ARTICLE III

I hereby appoint my husband, Herman M. Wallace, as the Executor of this my Last Will and Testament and because of my confidence in him, he is to serve without bond. Should my husband predecease me, or should we die in a common disaster, or should he be unable or unwilling to serve, then I name as contingent Executor, my son, Leonard McKeel Wallace and should he be called on to serve then he is to serve without bond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand to this my Last Will and Testament, consisting of two typewritten pages, including the attestation clause, on this the 21st day of August 19 76
