Last Will and Testament

OF

WILLIAM EARL KREISLE

* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That I, William Earl Kreisle, being at the date hereof of sound and disposing mind and memory, lawful age, and not acting under the malice, fraud nor undue influence of any person nor persons whomsoever, do hereby make, publish and declare the following to be my Last Will and Testament, to wit:

ITEM I

I direct my Executrix, hereinafter named, to pay all my just debts as soon as possible after my decease out of the first moneys coming into her hands and available therefor.

ITEM II

All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, be the same real, personal or mixed, of whatsoever kind or nature, of which I shall die seized or possessed, or over which I shall have power of appointment or disposition at my death, I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, Margaret H. Kreisle, in fee simple title forever.

ITEM III

In the event my wife, Margaret H. Kreisle, shall predecease me, or in the event that my wife and I shall meet our deaths at the same time or as a result of the same accident or disaster, or during a common illness, or under circumstances that the order of our deaths cannot be ascertained with reasonable certainty, I then give, devise and bequeath all the above described rest, residue and remainder of my estate to my children, William S. Kreisle, Mary K. Kreisle, Richard E. Kreisle, Judith A. Kreisle, Kristine G. Kreisle, Alice E. Kreisle, Timothy C. Kreisle and any after born children of mine, equally and per stirpes.

ITEM IV

I hereby appoint my wife, Margaret H. Kreisle, as my Executrix to carry out the provisions hereof and request that she be allowed
