LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF LOLA CHILDRESS BRIAN

BOOK 8577 PAGE 599

I, Lola Childress Brian, of Nashville, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory and realizing the uncertainty of life, do hereby make and publish this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils thereto at any time heretofore made by me, with the intention of herein disposing of my entire estate.

FIRSTLY: I desire and direct that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid from my estate.

SECONDLY: I give, devise and bequeath to my husband, Reuben Arthur Brian, all property which I own or of which I have the right of disposal at my demise and which remains after payment of my just debts and funeral expenses, of whatever kind, character and description, real, personal, intangible and mixed and wherever situated, to be used and enjoyed by him during his lifetime as he sees fit without any restrictions as to his use or disposal thereof, and after his death the remainder if any to our daughter, Anne Brian Moseley, in fee simple absolute.

THIRDLY: I nominate and appoint my husband, Reuben Arthur Brian, Executor of this my Last Will and Testament and I authorize my said Executor to do any and all things which in his opinion are necessary to complete the administration and settlement of my estate.

In the event that my husband, Reuben Arthur Brian, does not survive me or for any other reason fails to qualify as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, or, having qualified, shall thereafter for any reason cease to act, then I nominate and appoint my daughter, Anne Brian Moseley, of Nashville, Tennessee Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament with the same powers, privileges and immunities which are hereinbefore given to my husband, Reuben Arthur Brian, as Executor as aforesaid.

I direct that no bond be required of my Executor of of my Executrix.

IN TESTAMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name to this my Last Will and Testament at Nashville, Tennessee on this the 3rd day of November, 1957.

Lola C. Brian
