I, MARIE T. REED, a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this as my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any Will heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I: I nominate and appoint my grandson, John Clay, Jr., and Third National Bank in Nashville, a national banking association with its principal office in Nashville, Tennessee, as Co-Executors of this my Last Will and Testament, and I direct that neither of them be required to make bond for serving in such capacity.

ARTICLE II: I direct that all of my just debts be paid. I further direct that all estate, inheritance and other similar taxes shall be paid entirely out of my residuary estate and without apportionment, and with no right of reimbursement from any recipient or beneficiary.

ARTICLE III: All of the tangible personal property I own at the time of my death shall be distributed in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) I may leave a list attached to my Will, indicating that certain items of tangible personal property are to be distributed to the beneficiaries designated on the list, and my Executors are directed to comply with the instructions contained therein, which list is incorporated herein by reference. In addition, my Executors may find in my lock box at the Belle Meade Branch of Third National Bank certain items of personal property, with the names of certain individuals attached to the items, and I request my Executors to comply with my desires and to distribute those items to the persons whose names appear on said items of personal property, regardless of whether such instructions are binding on my Executors under the laws of the State of Tennessee.

(b) To the extent not disposed of under the provisions of subparagraph (a) above, I devise to my daughter, Eleanor Reed Clay, if she survives me, all of the furniture, household furnishings, personal effects and other tangible personal property which is physically located on my person and in my apartment in Park Manor Apartments in Nashville, Tennessee, at the time of my death.

(c) All other items of tangible personal property not dealt with in the above subparagraphs of this Article III I devise to my two grandchildren, James H. Reed, IV, and James Reed Clay, equally, with the hope and confidence (but without any legal or equitable requirement) that they will divide the items of tangible personal property among various family members appropriately.

ARTICLE IV: I hereby exercise the general power of appointment over the Marital Trust given to me under the Last Will and Testament of my husband, James H. Reed, Jr., in favor of my estate, and I direct the Trustee of the Marital Trust to distribute all of the assets of the trust to my Executors who shall add them to the other assets held by my Executors and administer and distribute them as a part of my probate estate in accordance with the terms of my Will.

ARTICLE V: I devise to my grandson, James H. Reed, IV, my lot on Belle Meade Boulevard in Nashville next to our old home, if he survives me.

ARTICLE VI: I devise all the rest and residue of my property, real, personal or mixed, of whatever kind and character and wheresoever situate, to Third National Bank in Nashville as Trustee under a Revocable Trust Agreement executed by me on even date herewith, as it may be amended by me from time to time, to be d to such trust and to be held, administered, and distributed as a part reof.

ARTICLE VII: My Executors shall have all the powers enumerated in Section 35-618, Tennessee Code Annotated, and the introductory paragraph and all subparagraphs thereof, to the extent not inconsistent with the express provisions hereof, are hereby incorporated herein by reference as fully as though copied herein verbatim.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand on this 10 day of August, 1981, to this my Last Will and Testament, and have subscribed the foregoing page at the bottom thereof for the purpose of identification.
