This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Shelton Luton, Judge of the Probate Court, upon this and former days of the term, upon the deposition on file and the proof heard by the Court.

5427 04/30 0101 03CHECK 9.00

From the foregoing it appears to the Court that the allegations of the bill are supported by the proof, that is that defendant is guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment as renders it unsafe and improper for complainant to longer live and cohabit with him.

It is accordingly ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that complainant have an absolute divorce from the defendant, and that she be restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person. It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED pursuant to the property settlement of the parties which is made a part of this Decree, being copied as follows:

"This agreement, made and entered into on this the first day of September, 1967, by and between DOROTHY ANITA HOLMAN MOSLEY and husband, JACK CLYDE MOSLEY,

W i t n e s s e t h:

That WHEREAS the parties can no longer live together as husband and wife, and they now desire to adjust and settle their property rights, it is agreed by and between the parties as follows:

(1) Dorothy Anita Holman Mosley agrees to deed the equity in the home of the parties at 2561 Stinson Road to Jack Clyde Mosley, for and in consideration of $50.00 in cash to be paid to her upon execution of said deed.

(2) Dorothy Anita Holman Mosley is to have all of the household furnishings and effects in the same condition as they were in at the time of the separation.

This agreement, being understood by the parties, comprises a complete settlement of their property rights.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the parties have signed this agreement, this the day and date first above written."
