BOOK 8671 PAGE 334

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable James Swiggart, Judge of the Sixth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, on Monday, July 12, 1976, upon the original bill filed by the plaintiff, and the answer of the defendant. It appearing to the Court that the original bill was filed in this cause on May 26, 1976; that personal service was had on the defendant; and that the defendant has answered and is represented by Mr. Joe Haynes, a member of the Nashville Bar; and that the parties have entered into an agreement with respect to the custody of the children, support for the children, the division of their marital estate, and alimony and attorney's fees; all of which was submitted to the Court for its information and approval, and that the cause came on to be heard as an uncontested matter. From the pleadings in the cause, the oral testimony of the plaintiff and her supporting witnesses, the agreement of the parties, the statement of counsel, and from the entire record in the cause, the Court was of the opinion that the allegations of the original bill were fully sustained, that is, that the defendant, Jerry Winford Hammock, has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards her as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Judy Faye Wright Hammock, and the defendant, Jerry Winford Hammock, be and the same are hereby forever and perpetually dissolved, and the plaintiff, Judy Faye Wright Hammock, is awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, Jerry Winford Hammock. Plaintiff is further restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It further appearing to the Court, and by agreement of the parties that the plaintiff mother, Judy Faye Wright Hammock, is the fit and proper person to have the custody and control of the minor children of these parties, namely, Michelle Lyn, age six, and Tammy Lee, age four, both of whom have always been with their mother, it is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the custody and control of said minor children is hereby decreed to the plaintiff mother, with the right and privilege to the defendant father to see and visit said minor children at reasonable times and places.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the said Jerry Winford Hammock pay to the said Judy Faye Wright Hammock the sum of $300.00 per month for the support of the minor children. The defendant father will also be responsible for and is directed to pay all costs necessary for any medical treatment needed by either child. The defendant will have the right to claim the exemption of both children for income tax purposes.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that all of the right, title and interest in and to the following real estate located at 256 Sailboat Drive in Nashville, Tennessee, heretofore owned by the parties as tenants by the entirety, and now occupied by the plaintiff and her minor children as their home, and more particularly described as follows:

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot No. 319, Section 9, on the Plan of Edge-O-Lake Estates, as of record in Book 3700, Page 131, Register's Office for said County.

Said Lot No. 319 fronts 80.00 feet on the easterly margin of Sailboat Drive and extends back 148.78 feet on the northerly line and 150.00 feet on the southerly line, to a dead line in the rear on which it measures 85.84 feet.

Being the same property conveyed to Jerry Winford Hammock and wife, Judy Faye Hammock, by deed from Robert E. Worrall, Jr., and wife, Barbara J. Worrall, as of record in Book 4424, Page 539, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

now vested in the defendant, Jerry Winford Hammock, is hereby divested out of the said Jerry Winford Hammock, and the title to said real estate is hereby vested in Judy Faye Wright Hammock in fee simple.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that all of the right, title and interest in and to the household furnishings and personal effects now located in the home now vested in the defendant, is hereby divested from him, and the title to same is vested in Judy Faye Wright Hammock absolutely.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that all of the right, title and interest in and to a 1975 Nova Chevrolet automobile now vested in the defendant is hereby divested out of him, and the title to same is vested in Judy Faye Wright Hammock, and the defendant is hereby directed to sign all necessary papers to effect this transfer. The defendant, Jerry Winford Hammock, is further ordered and directed to be responsible for and pay allencumbrances existing on said automobile at the date of this decree, so that the plaintiff will have the said automobile free and clear.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the plaintiff, Judy Faye Wright Hammock, have the boat and trailer heretofore owned by the parties, and the defendant will sign all necessary papers and instruments to provide her with the full title to same.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the Defendant, Jerry Winford Hammock, pay to the said Judy Faye Wright Hammock the sum of $400.00 per month as permanent alimony, and in settlement of their marital estate during her natural lifetime, said payments to be terminated only in the event the said Judy Faye Hammock remarries or dies.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the defendant, Jerry Winford Hammock, pay to Jack Norman, solicitor for the plaintiff in this cause, the sum of $650.00 as a reasonable attorney fee for representing the plaintiff in this cause. This sum is over and above the retainer fee which he has received.

The defendant will pay the costs of this cause, all for which execution may issue, if necessary.

This 12th day of July, 1976.
