This cause came on to be heard on the 19th day of June, 1992, before the Honorable Muriel Robinson Rice, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the Complaint for Divorce filed by the Plaintiff in this cause, Vickie McBeth Bradford. Based upon the testimony of the Plaintiff, statements of counsel for the Plaintiff, the Defendant being before this Court having entered into a written notarized Marital Dissolution Agreement, making specific reference to this action by cause or docket number, and by signing of such Agreement, and upon the record as a whole, the Court finds that the parties have suffered irreconcilable differences; and,

Section 36-4-103, and is hereby restored to all rights and privileges of an unmarried person. Pursuant to T.C.A. Section 36-4-103(b), the Court affirmatively finds that the parties hereto have made adequate and sufficient provisions by written agreement for the equitable settlement of any property rights and obligations between the parties; and further they have made adequate and sufficient provisions for the custody and support of their minor child at this time. MARITAL DISSOLUTION, CHILD CUSTODY AND SUPPORT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is hereby entered into this 31 day of May, 1992, by and between VICKIE McBETH BRADFORD, hereinafter referred to as "Wife", and WILLIAM HARRISON BRADFORD, hereinafter referred to as "Husband";

W I T N E S S E T H: BOOK 8683 PAGE 457

WHEREAS, certain differences have arisen between the parties which are irreconcilable and there is now pending in the Probate Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, a suit for divorce between the parties captioned as Vickie McBeth Bradford v. William Harrison Bradford, Case No. 92D-482; and,

WHEREAS, it is the decision of the parties insofar as they are able with the concurrence of the Court, to amicably settle their differences with respect to all property rights, support obligations, child custody rights, obligation for the payment of debts, and to enter into a contract for the settlement of such rights and obligations, not only for the present, but for the future, it being their intention that such contract will be effective with respect to all of their property and other matters and concerns subject to the approval of a Court of competent jurisdiction; and,

WHEREAS, both of these parties have been advised of their respective rights, obligations and responsibilities, one to the other, or have had the opportunity to have been so advised by counsel;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties do hereby agree as follows:

1. Each party shall be free from the interference, authority and control, direct or indirect, by the other as fully as if he or she were single and unmarried. Neither shall molest the other or compel or endeavor to compel the other to cohabit from this date hereafter.

2. CUSTODY AND VISITATION --

The parties are the parents of one (1) minor child, Tyler Harrison Bradford, D/O/B: 3/3/89, presently age 3 years. It is agreed between the parties that custody of this child shall be vested in the name of the Wife, with reasonable rights of visitation granted to the Husband to at least the extent that is normally granted by the Court, i.e., visitation shall be every other weekend commencing at 6:00 P.M. on Friday and ending at 6:00 P.M. on Sunday evening and, he shall be allowed visitation on Wednesday nights, overnight, until 8:00 A.M. Thursday morning, at which time Husband shall deliver the child to his regular day care, which is presently, For Kids, Only, 3421 Anderson Road, in Nashville, Tennessee. It is agreed that the above recital does not restrict the parties to mutually agree on additional time periods for visitation by the Husband upon reasonable notice to the Wife of his desire to exercise additional visitation, and Wife's concurrence therewith. It is agreed that Wife shall confer with Husband and keep him advised of all school activities, health decisions, and it is agreed that Husband shall have access to all school records and medical records regarding the minor child. In addition, the Husband shall have the right and authority to consent to reasonable medical care and services for the child while in his possession. Holiday visitation will include Mother's Day with the children to be with the Wife, and Father's Day with the children to be with the Husband, and all other holidays (Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, and Easter) to be alternated each year between the parties. Christmas Holidays will be divided between the parties. One parent shall exercise visitation for one week before Christmas until 8:30 P.M. on Christmas Eve with the children and the other parent shall have the children from 8:30 P.M. on Christmas Eve for one week after Christmas, with this Christmas schedule to be alternated each year between the parties. The Wife shall exercise Christmas visitation with the parties' minor children for the year 1991 for one week before Christmas until 8:30 P.M. on Christmas Eve. Thereafter, each year, Christmas Holidays shall be alternated as above set out. The children's birthdays will be split between the parties each year. The Husband is hereby granted extended summertime visitation of two (2) weeks during the summer with the children and the previous weekend and weekday visitation as hereinabove set out shall be exercised by the Wife during the extended summer visitation.

Neither party shall move from the Middle Tennessee area, as geographically defined, without first giving the other party at least ninety (90) days' written notice of such intent to move so as to allow that party to petition the Court for appropriate relief regarding the protection of his or her custodial and/or visitational rights.

3. CHILD SUPPORT --

With regard to child support, the Husband shall pay to the Wife the sum of Six Hundred Fifty and 79/100 Dollars ($650.79) per month, with the first monthly payment due within ten (10) days from the date that this Agreement is executed, and thirty (30) days from that date each month thereafter, pending further Orders of this Court. It is acknowledged between the parties that this support is based upon the Husband's 1991 W-2 income of $52,129.65. It is agreed that for any raise Husband receives thereafter, Husband shall pay 21% of the net raise as additional child support, pursuant to the Tennessee Child Support Guidelines. Husband shall provide at least annually to Wife, and at such reasonable times as requested by Wife, evidence of Husband's income, including the W-2 statement, paycheck stub, or other evidence as to Husband's income to verify income received by Husband, for the purposes of evaluating any child support increase pursuant to the Tennessee Child Support Guidelines. This requirement shall only be effective during the time that Husband is obligated to pay child support, either by law or pursuant to this Agreement. The parties certify that support as provided herein meets or exceeds the Guidelines as established by the State of Tennessee. Pursuant to T.C.A. §36-5-101(8), the parties affirmatively acknowledge that no action by them will be effective to reduce child support after the due date of each payment, that they understand that Court approval must be obtained before child support can be reduced, unless such payments are automatically reduced or terminated under the terms of this Agreement. Unless specifically Ordered by the Court, such support shall not be reduced nor pro-rated.

As additional child support, over and above the child support as set out hereinabove pursuant to the Guidelines, Husband shall reimburse Wife for one-half (1/2) of all tuition costs for any year in which the child is enrolled in private school. Husband shall pay his one-half (1/2) liability for such tuition to Wife, at such time or times as Wife is regularly required to pay such tuition. Wife shall provide verification of such tuition costs to Husband at least annually, or upon such reasonable request as made by him.

4. HEALTH INSURANCE --

With regard to health insurance for the minor child, the Wife hereby agrees to maintain, and keep in full force and effect her group health insurance policy, drug and dental plan currently in effect with Nissan Motor Manufacturing Corporation, U.S.A., through Provident Health Insurance Company, providing hospitalization, medical, dental, and prescription coverage. As additional child support, Husband shall reimburse Wife for the cost of the dependent health care premium to cover the parties' child as a dependent. The current insurance premium for dependent coverage is $36.36. Husband shall reimburse Wife monthly for this amount. If there is any increase in the premium for dependent coverage, Husband shall reimburse Wife for that amount as additional child support.

Any health care expenses incurred on behalf of the minor child of the parties, falling within the deductible or not covered by Wife's insurance, or any applicable insurance maintained by Husband, shall be borne equally between the parties, including medical, dental, hospitalization, prescription, optic, orthodontic, or psychological charges. Upon all reasonable requests by Husband and on each anniversary date of the policy, Wife shall furnish Husband a certificate showing that such coverage is in full force and effect.

5. LIFE INSURANCE --

As additional child support and to fully secure a fund to Wife for the payment of child support for the maintenance and welfare of the parties' minor child while he is a minor, and while the Husband is obligated to pay support either under the terms of this Agreement or by law, Husband agrees to maintain in full force and effect the life insurance policy on his life in the face amount of $50,000.00, with Equitable Life Insurance Company, Policy Number 34 639 774, designating the Wife as beneficiary, to utilize those proceeds for the support, maintenance, and upbringing of the minor child. The Husband shall be responsible for any insurance premiums due to maintain the aforementioned policy in full force and effect. It is further agreed that if there are any increases in the policy premium, the Husband shall be responsible for the payment of such additional premium increase to the Wife as additional child support. Husband agrees to furnish Wife a Certificate of Insurance for said policy within thirty (30) days of the entry of the Final Decree in this cause, and each year thereafter, or at any time upon reasonable request by Wife.

Upon the termination of the Husband's obligation to pay child support under the terms of this Agreement or by law, Husband's obligation to maintain the Wife as beneficiary shall terminate and Husband shall be free to utilize the aforementioned policy in any manner he deems appropriate including changing of beneficiaries.

6. The current address of the Wife is as follows:

Ms. Vickie McBeth Bradford
3788 Priest Lake Drive
Nashville, TN 37217

The current address of the Husband is as follows:

Mr. William Harrison Bradford
1405 Doubletree Lane
Nashville, TN 37217

At all times, both parties agree to provide the other with their current work and home addresses and telephone numbers while the child is a minor.

7. PERSONAL PROPERTY --

It is agreed between the parties that all right, title and interest to the personal property of the Wife as scheduled on Exhibit "I" attached to this Agreement shall become the sole and separate property of the Wife free of any further claim of the Husband. It is likewise agreed that all right, title and interest to the personal property of the Husband as scheduled on Exhibit "II" attached to this Agreement shall become the sole and separate property of the Husband free of any further claim of the Wife. Any other property not herein disclosed in Exhibit "I" or "II", shall become the sole and separate property of that party presently in possession, free of any further claim of the nonpossessory party, with the exception that upon the event of the sale of the marital residence, the patio furniture and yard tools and equipment shall be divided equally between the parties. Until such time as the house is sold, Wife shall be allowed to use the patio furniture, and yard tools and equipment, without division.

8. AUTOMOBILES --

Wife presently operates a leased vehicle -- a 1991 Maxima. She will be responsible for the lease payments on this vehicle, and shall hold Husband harmless from any further liability on this vehicle, and shall be responsible for any maintenance and upkeep on this vehicle, without any further responsibility by Husband. The Husband operates a 1990 Chevrolet Astro minivan, which is currently free and clear of any debt. The parties agree that this vehicle has a fair market value of $14,000.00, and Wife shall be entitled to one-half (1/2) of this equity in this vehicle, free of any further right, title, or claim of Husband.

Wife's equity shall be paid to her as provided hereinafter in Paragraph 10 of this Agreement. All right, title, and interest in and to said vehicle, except for Wife's equity, shall be divested out of her and reinvested in the Husband's name as his sole and separate property. Husband shall be responsible for any upkeep and maintenance on this vehicle, without any further responsibility by Wife.

9. DEBTS --

There are no known marital debts, with the exception of the mortgage on the parties' real property. For any debt not herein disclosed in this Agreement, the parties shall be responsible for such debt in the same manner and in the same relationship as when contracted.

10. REAL ESTATE --

It is acknowledged by and between the parties that they own as tenants in common with right of survivorship, a house and lot located at 3788 Priest Lake Drive, in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, 37217, hereinafter described more particularly as follows: MPN 136-06-0058.00

> Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot No. 261 on the Plan of Priest lake Park Section 5 of record in Plan Book 4460, Page 174, 175, and 176, Register's Office for said county, to which referenced is made for a more complete description.
> Being the same property conveyed to William H. Bradford and Vickie L. McBeth, as Tenants in Common with right of survivorship, by Deed from Gary D. Hill et ux, Linda C. Hill, of record in Book 6237, Page 370, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.
> This conveyance is subject to any and all existing restrictions and easements of record.

It is acknowledged between the parties that they shall continue to hold such real estate as tenants in common after the marriage is dissolved, but not with expressed right of survivorship, such right of survivorship being herein expressly abolished, but the Wife shall have the sole and exclusive right to reside in the residence with the parties' minor child, until her death, remarriage, or until the parties' child attains his nineteenth (19th) birthday, or graduates from high school with his graduating high school class, whichever event first occurs.

Until the happening of one of the aforestated events, Wife shall be entitled to live at the residence with the parties' minor child without interruption or interference from Husband, and she will be responsible for the payment of the mortgage owed on the property, and all of the normal and routine maintenance and upkeep expense on the property (with the exception of structural repairs or replacement, including but not limited to the roof, its members, walls, or foundation, central air and heating--these expenses shall be equally divided between the parties. Upon the expenditure by Wife for such structural repairs, Husband shall reimburse Wife within thirty (30) days of such expenditure, one-half (1/2) of such expense as his one-half (1/2) liability for such repairs).

It is agreed that on the happening of one of the foregoing events, the house, at the option of the Wife, shall be listed for sale with a licensed real estate agent within thirty (30) days, and shall be listed for sale or purchased by Wife as the case may be, at a mutually agreeable price, reflecting what the parties believe to be the fair market value of the property, or if the parties cannot agree as to value, a mutually acceptable certified real estate appraiser shall be obtained, and the house shall be listed for value as determined by such appraiser, and from the sale of the said property, Husband shall receive one-third (1/3) of the equity realized from the sale at that time, after deducting all mortgages, closing costs, major structural repairs therefore paid by Wife if Husband has not already paid his one-half (1/2) share, taxes, and other costs at the closing, and Wife shall receive two-thirds (2/3) of such equity as her property.

With regard to Husband's equity, it is agreed that out of his one-third (1/3) equity realized from the sale of the property, the closing agent shall deduct the sum of $7,000.00, and shall pay said sum to Wife as her share of the equity in the parties' 1990 Astro Van, as set out in paragraph 8.

If the Wife elects to purchase the property from the Husband, after all normal closing costs have been deducted, including major structural repairs heretofore paid by Wife if Husband has not paid his one-half (1/2) share, taxes, and other costs at closing, Wife shall receive two-thirds (2/3's) of such equity in said property and Husband shall receive one-third (1/3), with the Wife's equity in the parties' 1990 Astro Van of $7,000.00 deducted from Husband's one-third (1/3) equity, in the same manner as hereinabove set out as if the property were sold to a third party.

11. PENSION PLAN/401K PLAN --

Wife has a 401K Investment Security Plan through her employment at Nissan Motor Manufacturing Corporation U.S.A., titled as follows -- Vickie M. Bradford, [redacted]-3512, 2333. The parties agree that as of said Plan's Statement of Account dated 12/31/91, Husband will be entitled to receive one-half (1/2) of Wife's vested balance of her contributions as of that date, in the total amount of $21,094.98, i.e., Husband's share will total $10,547.49.

Pursuant to Section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code, and other applicable provisions, this Marital Dissolution Agreement shall be considered a Qualified Domestic Relations Order ("Order"), and assigns a portion of the benefits in the 401K Investment Security Plan through Nissan Motor Manufacturing Corporation, U.S.A. ("the Plan"), from Vickie M. Bradford (Member Number [redacted]-3512, 2333) to William Harrison Bradford in recognition of the existence of his marital rights in Vickie M. Bradford's Pension Plan.

Member in the Plan is Vickie M. Bradford, whose last known mailing address is 3788 Priest Lake Drive, Nashville, TN 37217, Social Security Number: [redacted]-3512.

Alternate Payee is William Harrison Bradford, whose last known mailing address is 1405 Doubletree Lane, Nashville, TN 37217, Social Security Number: [redacted]-6693.

The 401K Investment Security Plan is hereby Ordered to assign a portion of the accumulations to each party as of the date of the assignment of the Retirement Account, in approximately the same value. The date of assignment is December 31, 1991. It is anticipated that the vested contributions as of that date are in the amount of $21,094.98. It is agreed that each party shall have the sum of $10,547.49 in their respective Retirement Accounts as of the assignment date, i.e., December 31, 1991. If the parties are mistaken as to the value of the Retirement Account as of December 31, 1991, it is the intent of the parties that each party as herein stated, shall receive one-half (1/2) of Wife's vested balance of her contributions as of December 31, 1991, whatever that value may ultimately be determined to be.

This Qualified Domestic Relations Order is not intended to require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefits or any option not otherwise provided by the Plan, nor shall this Order require the Plan to provide for increased benefits not required by the Plan. This Order does not require the Plan to provide benefits to Alternate Payee that are required to be paid to another alternate payee under another Order previously determined to be a Qualified Domestic Relations Order.

All benefits payable under the Plan other than those payable to William Harrison Bradford, shall be payable to Vickie M. Bradford in such manner and form as he may elect in his sole and undivided discretion, subject only to Plan requirements.

William Harrison Bradford is ORDERED AND DECREED to report any retirement payments received on any applicable income tax return. The Investment Security Plan is authorized to issue the appropriate Internal Revenue Form for any direct payment made to William Harrison Bradford.

The benefits awarded hereunder shall not be assigned, pledged, or otherwise transferred, voluntarily or involuntarily, prior to the receipt of such benefits by the Alternate Payee.

This Order is subject to, and may be modified to the extent required by, the Internal Revenue Code, the Employment, Retirement, Income Security Act, amendments to either, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, where applicable to the matters set forth herein.

The parties acknowledge the Participant shall be responsible for any federal and state taxes or penalty arising out of her interest, and the Alternate Payee shall be responsible for federal and state taxes or penalty arising out of his interest.

The parties shall promptly notify the Plan Administrator of any change in their addresses from those set forth in this Order.

An attested copy of this Order is to be served upon the Trustees of the Plan, or the Plan Administrator, immediately after entry.

The address and Social Security Number of the Participant and Alternate Payee are as follows:

Participant:

Vickie M. Bradford
3788 Priest Lake Drive
Nashville, TN 37217

Alternate Payee:

Mr. William Harrison Bradford
1405 Doubletree Lane
Nashville, TN 37217

The amount due to the Alternate Payee under this Order shall be payable under the survivor rights specifically provided for, and shall in no way be affected by the death or remarriage of the Participant, Vickie M. Bradford.

That the Alternate Payee's right to receive a portion of the benefits payable to the respective Participant in the Plan arises pursuant to T.C.A. §36-4-121(b)(1). Nothing herein is intended to effect in any manner the Social Security benefits to which either party may be entitled.

12. ACCEPTANCE BY THE PARTIES --

With respect to each party's responsibility for the payment of certain debts and liabilities, and their obligation to hold the other harmless for the payment thereof, the parties understand and agree that their obligations are nondischargeable debts under 11 U.S.C. 523(5) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any corresponding provision in any other Bankruptcy law), these obligations being part of the final financial support settlement for both parties. These financial obligations on the part of both parties are not a part of the property settlement. The division of the property is set forth elsewhere in the Marital Dissolution Agreement.

13. This Agreement is a transfer of appreciated property between spouses in connection with a divorce and is not a sale or exchange or other disposition, but is a division of property by co-owners.

14. Each party shall be responsible for his or her own debts that each party incurred after the parties' separation, except as provided herein, holding the other party harmless from any liability or obligation thereon. For any indebtedness not herein disclosed or set out, it is agreed that each party shall be responsible for that indebtedness in the same manner and under the same legal relationship and obligation as when those respective debts were incurred, except as otherwise stated in this Agreement.

15. Both parties agree to pay their own respective attorneys' fees for services rendered in this matter. The Court costs shall be paid by the Husband, for which execution may issue if necessary.

16. In consideration of the foregoing covenants, promises, and undertakings, both parties waive any and all claim for alimony against each other, past or present.

17. While the child of the parties is a minor, the Wife shall maintain her married name of Vickie McBeth Bradford.

18. In the event a creditor of either party seeks to compel the other party to pay any debt for which that party is not responsible either by contract or pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the party against whom such claim is made shall be entitled to recover from the other party the amount of any payment he or she makes, including interest, and any expenses incurred in defending the creditor's claim, including reasonable attorney's fees.

19. In the event it becomes reasonably necessary for either party to institute legal proceedings to procure the enforcement of any provision of this Agreement, he or she shall also be entitled to a judgment for reasonable expenses including attorney's fees incurred in prosecuting the action.

20. It is understood and agreed between the parties that this Agreement is intended to be a final settlement of all property rights and support rights and obligations of the respective parties hereto and shall constitute a discharge from all claims arising out of their marital relationship except as provided herein. Each party waives and relinquishes to the other all right or claims which they may have or hereafter acquire under the law of any jurisdiction with respect to the other's property, including without limitation, dower, courtesy, statutory allowance, homestead rights, rights to take against the Will of the other, inheritance, descent or distribution, or right to act as Administrator or Executor of the other's estate except as provided by the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement applies to all property now owned by the parties, individually or jointly, or any property that either of them may acquire in the future.

21. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their personal representatives, heirs and assigns.

22. In the event any provision of this Agreement shall be held invalid in a Court of competent jurisdiction, such individual provision shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement, said provisions being severable.

23. It is understood and agreed between the parties as part of the consideration for the execution of this Agreement each party shall willingly execute and deliver any and all instruments necessary or required in order to implement the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

24. This Agreement may be altered, amended or cancelled only by instrument in writing signed by each of the parties.

25. It is agreed by and between the parties that the Wife may proceed with her Complaint for Absolute Divorce in the Probate Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, or any court of competent jurisdiction, on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and present the foregoing Agreement as evidence of the agreement between the parties in distributing the marital estate and resolving all matters involving the marital estate and shall be allowed to obtain a divorce in the Probate Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, or any other court of competent jurisdiction upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences.
