Last Will and Testament

of

Mrs. Clara M. Sturdivant.

I, Mrs. Clara M. Sturdivant, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby revoke any former will or wills I may have made and make this, my last will and testament.

It is directed that payment be made within the time prescribed by law, of all my just debts and the expenses incident to my last illness, death, burial and the administration of my estate, with any necessary fees, taxes and costs.

The rest and residue of my property of every kind, class and character, whether real, personal or mixed, and wherever situate; I give, will, devise and bequeath, whether in cash or in kind, and in the share, portion or amounts as herein shown, and to the person or persons indicated:

(a) If I am survived by my two daughters, Clara Frances Taylor and Ruth Wylodene Ramey, the distribution of the rest and residue of my estate between them shall be in equal shares.

(b) If either of my said daughters predeceases me and the other one survives me, the distribution shall still be into two equal shares. One of such equal shares goes to my said surviving daughter and the other one of such equal shares shall be placed in trust for the child or children of my deceased daughter, to their equal use and benefit.

(c) If both of my said daughters predecease me and both leave a child or children who also survive me; then and in that event, the distribution shall be per stirpes and in trust for the use and benefit of each.

(d) If both of my said daughters and all of the children of either one of my said daughters predecease me, then and in that event, the distribution shall be in trust for the per capita use and benefit of the surviving child or children of that one of my daughters which predeceases me and is the only one of the two of my said daughters leaving a child or children who also survive me.

(e) Every reference herein to child or children shall be construed to mean natural born, adopted and that one or those for the adoption of whom a "Surrender" and a "Petition to Adopt" shall have been filed prior to my death, in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

(f) None of the property of my estate may be placed in the hands, possession or ownership of any beneficiary who has not arrived at the age of 21 years, but rather shall be placed in the hands of a Trustee, which may be either an individual or a Committee of Trustees for the use and benefit of such minor surviving child or children. Distribution of their respective shares shall be made as each beneficiary reaches his or her majority as a competent person and able to handle his or her own affairs.

I name my surviving daughters and sons-in-law or such of them as do survive me, as Trustee or a Trustee Committee for the use and benefit of the surviving described child or children, and to serve without bond. Any naturally born living child fitted into above categories who is born within ten month after my death shall be wholly covered as beneficiaries under this instrument.

I name my resident son-in-law, Wiley D. Taylor as the Executor of this, my last will and testament and request that he allowed to forego bond.

Done at Nashville, Tennessee, this, April 27th, 1959.

divant did publish and declare unto us together that the foregoing constitutes and is her last will and testament; and at the same time and under the same circumstances and conditions, she requested that we witness the execution of the same as such.

Then, in the sight and presence of both of us together, she did write her initials in the lower left-hand corner of this and the one foregoing sheet of this instrument, and did immediately insert correct day of the month in the blank immediately to the left of the place provided for her signature, to the completion of this, the correct date, and then did immediately affix her own signature in the space provided therefor near the bottom of sheet numbered 1.

Then, in her sight and presence and in the sight and presence of eachother, we have each read this Attestation Clause and affixed our respective signatures hereunder, as witnesses to the fact that all of the enumerated events did actually take place on the date and in the way, manner and order indicated.
