I Eva M. Mason, a resident of the State of Tennessee, do make publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all Wills heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I.

There may be found with my Will a list of items and the names of the persons to whom the items are to go. If such a list is found, I charge my Executor to honor such list as if it were set out herein verbatim. All of the remainder of my tangible personal property, shall be sold, and the proceeds from such sale shall be distributed as follows:

One fifth shall go to my sister, Mabel Cochran, if she survives me, and if she does not, this shall go to her daughter, Lorabelle Shattuck;

One fifth shall go to my brother, Delbert N. Hensinger, if he survives, and if he does not, this shall be divided equally between my great nieces, Lynne Herrmann and Laura Jane Klominek, daughters of Lorabelle Shattuck;

One fifth shall go to Louie Brown Mason, Sr. my brother-in-law, if he survives, and if he does not, this shall go to his wife, Alene;

One fifth shall go to my nephew, Everette M. Adkins, if he survives, and if he does not, this shall go to his wife, Veronica.

One fifth shall go to my brother-in-law, Charlie G. Mason, if he survives, but if he does not, this shall lapse, and shall go to increase proportionately the shares of those named in ARTICLE II hereinafter.

ARTICLE II.

I leave to the discretion of my Executor the choice of the source of funds from funds on hand, bank accounts and cash equivalents in my estate from which shall be paid all of my legal obligations which are not secured by lien or mortgage, all of my last expenses, the cost of my funeral, and any and all taxes arising by reason of my death. Any funds remaining from cash on hand, bank accounts and cash equivalents shall be distributed as follows:

Ten percent (10%) shall go to my nephew, Everette Mason Adkins, for serving as joint executor, and ten percent (10%) shall go to Louie Brown Mason, Sr., my brother-in-law, for serving as joint executor. If either of them is deceased, is unable, or is unwilling to serve, his ten percent (10%) shall lapse and be distributed in the same manner as my residuary estate as set out in ARTICLE III herein below:

Forty percent (40%) shall go to my sister, Mabel Cochran, if living, and if not to her daughter, Lorabelle Shattuck; and Forty percent (40%) shall go to my brother, Delbert N. Hensinger, if living, and if not to my great nephew, Christopher Young.

If neither of them survive me, the shares shall be distributed equally among my sister, Mabel Cochran, or if she be deceased to her daughter, Lorabelle; to Grace Methodist Church; to Louis Brown Mason, Sr., if living and if not to his wife, Alene, and to my nephew, Everett M. Adkins, if living, and if not, to his wife, Veronica.

ARTICLE III.

If it has not been necessary to sell my home to secure funds for my own support, then, at my death my home located at 1336 Stainback Avenue, in Nashville, Tennessee, shall go to my nephew, Everett M. Adkins, if he survives me, and if he does not, this shall go to his wife, Veronica. If it has been necessary to sell my home, any such funds, if any, not expended or applied for my own care, shall go to Everett M. Adkins, and if he is deceased, such funds shall go to his wife, Veronica. There is no way I can recompense them for their love and care expended for me, but I rely in peace on my confidence that if my own funds are depleted, they will continue to care for me, and this is only an expression of my love which is returned to them.

ARTICLE IV.

I nominate and appoint Louie Brown Mason and Everette M. Adkins as Executor of my estate. If either of them be deceased, or be unable, unwilling or ceases to serve, the other of them shall serve, and no bond shall be required of them or either of them so to serve.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 20 day of June, 1989.
