vs.	)	No. 90D-2702
HEATHER GAIL GIBSON, Wife.	)

FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE BOOK 8868 PAGE 465

This cause came on to be heard on the 16th day of January, 1992, before the Honorable Thomas Brothers, Judge of the Sixth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original Complaint for Absolute Divorce filed by the Husband, the presentation to the Court of a signed Marital Dissolution Agreement entered into between the parties which the Court finds makes a fair and equitable division of the parties' jointly owned property, adequate and sufficient provisions for the custody and support of the parties' minor children, the Amendment thereto, and the entire record in this cause. From all of which, it appears to the Court that the Husband should be awarded an absolute divorce from the Wife upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences. It further appears to the Court that the Marital Dissolution Agreement and Amendment thereto entered into between the parties should be approved and incorporated into this Final Decree of Divorce. It further appears to the Court that there should be no proration or reduction of support unless otherwise ordered by this Court. It further appears to the Court that the current address of the wife is 705 Darden Place, Nashville, Tennessee; and the address of the Husband is 4505 harding Road, Nashville, Tennessee.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Husband be and is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the Wife upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences and is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person and the bonds of matrimony existing between the parties shall be perpetually dissolved.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Marital Dissolution Agreement and Amendment thereto entered into between the parties be and the same hereby is approved and incorporated into this Final Decree of Divorce by copying verbatim as follows:

MARITAL DISSOLUTION AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is entered into by and between PAUL CALVIN GIBSON (hereinafter referred to as "Husband") and HEATHER GAIL MARTIN GIBSON (hereinafter referred to as "Wife"), subject to the following premises, terms and conditions:

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the parties have experienced marital difficulties in the past, with the result that the Husband has instituted divorce proceedings against the Wife, same being Civil Action No. 90D-2702 in the Sixth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, it is the decision of the parties, insofar as they are able without the concurrence of the Court, to amicably settle their differences with respect to all property rights, support obligations and obligations for payment of debts, and to enter into a contract for the settlement of such rights and obligations, not only for the present, but for the future, it being their intention that such contract will be effected with respect to all of their property and other matters of concern.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the foregoing premises, and in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements hereinafter contained, the parties do hereby agree as follows:

1. The Husband shall proceed to trial and obtain a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, and shall be restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties shall be perpetually dissolved.

2. The parties shall have joint care, custody and control of the parties' four minor children, Tobias (d.o.b.

8-24-76), Corbett (d.o.b. 2-23-78), Chadwick (d.o.b. 1-24-81), and Paula (d.o.b. 10-15-85). The Wife shall have primary physical custody of the children, with the Husband having visitation as follows:

A) Every other weekend, the Husband will pick the children up from school on Friday and keep them until the following Sunday at 6:00 p.m.

B) Every other Thursday during the week which the Husband does not have visitation, from after school and he will keep the children overnight and return them back to school the following morning. During the summer months, he shall return the children to the Wife's home before he goes to work in the morning.

C) For the Christmas holidays, the Husband shall have the children for one week at Christmas, to commence either one week prior to December 24th, or one week after December 25th. The children shall always spend December 24th until 8:00 p.m. with the Husband, and will spend December 25th until 8:00 p.m. with the Wife, on all years.

D) Spring Break every year for two consecutive years, with the Wife having the children the third year and repeating again in the same fashion. The Wife shall have the children for two consecutive Easters in the years Husband has the children for Spring Break. The years Wife has children on Spring Break, Husband shall have children on Easter.

E) The Husband shall have the children for three weeks during the summer vacation (not necessarily consecutive); however, the Husband shall consult with the Wife as to her planned vacation time with the children so that his three week period will not conflict with the Wife's summer plans.

F) The Husband shall provide clothing during times when the children are with Husband.

G) The Husband shall be responsible for pickup and return of the children personally during his visitation. If Husband is unable to personally pick up and deliver the children, Wife, if able, will assist Husband in these responsibilities.

H) In the event the Husband moves, or the Wife moves with the children, from the State of Tennessee or farther than a 100 mile radius of Nashville, Tennessee, then the Husband's visitation shall be as follows:

a) at least five weeks in the summer time, not to interfere with Wife's planned vacation time.

b) Spring Break every year for two consecutive years, with the Wife having the children the third year and repeating again in the same fashion. The Wife shall have the children for two consecutive Easters in the years Husband has the children for Spring Break. The years Wife has children on Spring Break, Husband shall have children on Easter.

c) One week at Christmas, from December 26 until one week thereafter.

d) At least one weekend per month, provided the visit takes place in the children's home town, unless Husband provides round trip transportation for children to his location..

3. The Husband shall pay to the Wife for the support of the four minor children child support in the amount of $3,000.00 per month. Said support payments shall commence on the first day of the first month following the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce in this cause, and said $3,000.00 shall continue to be paid on the first day of each month thereafter until the last child turns eighteen years of age or finishes high school with his or her graduating class, whichever is the latter to occur, with no proration or reduction of support being made as each child turns eighteen years. Said support is consistent with the Tennessee Child Support Guidelines, based on the Husband's income in excess of $100,000.00 per year. When the Husband's income exceeds $100,000.00 per year, he will increase the child support payments to $4,000.00 per month.

As additional child support, the Husband shall pay the amount of $1,500.00 per year toward vacation expenses for the children, for four years, beginning in the year of 1993, and continuing for 1994, 1995 and 1996.

As additional child support, the Husband shall provide the Wife and minor children with six airline passes per year, when Husband's employment situation permits him to obtain sufficient free passes to meet this obligation.

4. The Husband shall pay to the Wife as alimony in futuro until his death, her death or remarriage, whichever occurs first, the sum of $1,000.00 per month. If Wife is still alive and unmarried after the youngest child reaches the age of eighteen, alimony shall increase to $2,000.00 per month.

Additionally, if after the youngest child reaches the age of eighteen, Husband's net income is greater than $150,000.00 for two consecutive years, alimony shall increase to $3,000.00 per month. If at any time Wife earns gross income in excess of $70,000.00 per year for two consecutive years, Husband's alimony obligations shall terminate. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall prohibit either party from petitioning the Court to decrease or reinstate alimony if that party's income falls below the income levels set forth in this paragraph.

Said payments shall be payable to the Wife on the fifteenth day of each month, commencing on the fifteenth day of the first month following the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce in this cause, and shall continue to be paid on the fifteenth day of each month thereafter until the Husband no longer has an alimony obligation.

5. The Husband shall continue to maintain health insurance coverage for the benefit of the four children of the parties until each child graduates from college, and in addition thereto, he will continue to provide health insurance coverage for the Wife ~~until the Wife's death or remarriage,~~ for 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994, 1995 and he shall be responsible for paying all premiums in connection therewith unless the Wife is covered by another plan in connection with her employment. The Husband shall be responsible for paying any and all medical, dental, orthodontic (including braces), eye care (including glasses and contact lenses), prescription drugs, psychiatric and psychological expenses for the four children which are not covered by his health insurance plan so long as he is required to maintain health insurance coverage for them. All expenses above normal health insurance coverage shall be approved by Husband prior to such expense being incurred.

6. The Husband shall maintain at least $150,000.00 of life insurance on his life, with the children then living designated as the sole and irrevocable beneficiaries thereon and the Wife designated as Trustee for any children under the age of 25. The Husband shall provide the Wife, on an annual basis, proof that said insurance is in full force and effect. The Husband shall execute a Last Will and Testament, and keep the same in full force and effect, which Last Will and Testament shall fairly distribute his estate.

7. The Husband agrees that the Wife shall receive all right, title and interest in and to the marital residence located at 705 Darden Place, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee 37205, with the Husband being divested of any interest he may have therein. The Wife shall assume the first mortgage indebtedness owed to the Commercial Federal Savings and Loan, and she shall hold the Husband harmless from repayment thereof. The Husband agrees that he shall within a reasonable time cause to be removed from the home the second mortgage indebtedness owed to Third National Bank, in the approximate amount of $90,000.00, and he shall remove the Wife from any responsible therefrom and shall indemnify and hold the Wife harmless from repayment thereof. The Husband shall execute and deliver to the Wife a Quitclaim Deed conveying all of his interest in said property to the Wife.

8. The Husband shall be awarded all right, title and interest in and to the jointly owned real property located at 137 Harpeth Trace, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, and he shall assume the outstanding indebtedness owed thereon and hold the Wife harmless from repayment thereof.

9. The Husband shall receive all right, title and interest in and to the real property located at Unit 505, Rokeby, 3901 Harding Road, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, and the Husband shall assume the outstanding indebtedness owed thereon and hold the Wife harmless from repayment thereof.

10. The Wife shall receive all right, title and interest in and to the 1989 Isuzu Trooper automobile and the 1987 GMC Astrovan, with the Husband being divested of any interest he may have therein. The Husband shall receive all right, title and interest in and to the 1987 Jeep Wagoneer and any other vehicles which he has in his possession.

11. With respect to the education of the children, the parties agree as follows:

a) Husband agrees to assist each child with education expenses beyond high school, such amounts to be in his discretion considering Husband's financial condition at the time, such child's ability to assist with expenses and such child's progress in school.

12. The Wife shall be awarded all right, title and interest in and to all furniture and furnishings located at 705 Darden Place, Nashville, Tennessee 37205, as well as all of her personal belongings.

13. The Husband has accumulated certain thrift and individual retirement accounts, and the parties agree that the Wife shall be entitled to one-half of Husband's thrift account with his employer, Aladdin Synergetics, Inc., such share to be valued as of July 19, 1991 (total value in the approximate amount of $95,000.00). Wife's share shall be transferred to her pursuant to a Qualified Domestic Relations Order to be subsequently entered in this cause.

The Wife shall be entitled to all right, title and interest in and to the individual retirement account with the Third National Bank (totalling approximately $8,000.00) and the individual retirement accounts with the Royal Bank in Mississauga, Canada and the Canada Trust in Etobicoke, Canada (in the aggregate amount of approximately $14,000.00).

The parties agree that following the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce in this cause a Qualified Domestic Relations Order will be entered to convey title to the Wife to the interest in said accounts as set out above as they exist at the time of the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce in this cause.

The Wife shall have no other right or claim to any other retirement or pension benefits of Husband.

14. In addition to the other debts and obligations that the Husband is assuming hereunder, the Husband shall be responsible for the payment of all joint debts of the parties incurred during the marriage, and he shall indemnify and hold the Wife harmless from repayment thereof.

15. The Husband shall receive all right, title and interest in and to the Hillwood Country Club membership, ~~provided, however, that the Wife shall be allowed to be the signing female on the Husband's membership at said Club~~. Wife will reimburse Husband for any expenses incurred for her personal use.

16. The Husband shall pay all attorney's fees and Court costs incurred in this cause.

17. Whenever one party is required by the terms of this Agreement to assume responsibility for paying certain debts and/or indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any liability therefor, such obligation shall be deemed to be a support obligation under 11 U.S.C. 523(5) which is not dischargeable in bankruptcy as to the other party.

18. In the event a creditor of either party makes a claim against the other party, which is upheld by a Court of competent jurisdiction, to pay any debt for which that party is not responsible, either by contract or pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the party against whom such claim is made shall be entitled to recover from the responsible party the amount of any payment he or she makes, including interest, and any expenses incurred in defending the creditor's claim, including reasonable attorney's fees.

19. In the event it becomes reasonably necessary for either party to institute legal proceedings to procure the enforcement of any provision of this Agreement, he or she shall also be entitled to a judgment for reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred in prosecuting the action.

20. It is understood and agreed between the parties that this Agreement shall be introduced in the proceedings now pending in the Sixth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee and submitted to the Court for ratification and incorporation into the Final Decree of Divorce between the parties.

21. It is understood and agreed between the parties that this Agreement is intended to be a final settlement of all property rights and support rights and obligations of the respective parties hereto and shall constitute a discharge from all claims arising out of their marital relationship except as provided herein. Each party hereby waives and relinquishes to the other all rights or claims which each may have or hereafter acquire under the law of any jurisdiction with respect to the other's property, including without limitation, dower, curtesy, statutory allowance, homestead rights, right to take against the will of the other, inheritance, descent or distribution, or right to act as administrator or executor of the other's estate except as provided by the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement applies to all property now owned by Husband and Wife, individually or jointly, or any property that either of them may acquire in the future.

22. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their personal representatives, heirs and assigns.

23. The parties acknowledge that there are no assets owned by them, either jointly or individually, and that they have no interest in any assets, which are not reflected by the terms of this Agreement. The parties warrant and represent that they have made full disclosure to each other of all assets in which they have an interest.

24. It is understood and agreed between the parties that this Agreement is entered into without undue influence, fraud, coercion, or misrepresentation, or for any reason not herein stated. The provisions in this Agreement and their legal effect are fully known by each of the parties, and each party acknowledges that the Agreement is fair and equitable and that it is being entered into voluntarily.

25. This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties. There are no representations, warranties or promises other than those expressly set forth herein.

26. In the event any provision of this Agreement shall be held invalid by a Court of competent jurisdiction, such invalid provision shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement, said provisions being severable.

27. It is understood and agreed between the parties that, as part of the consideration for the execution of this Agreement, each party shall willingly execute and deliver any and all instruments necessary or required in order to implement the terms of this Agreement.

28. This Agreement may be altered, amended or cancelled only by instrument in writing signed by each of the parties, and this requirement cannot be waived by oral agreement.

29. The Husband and Wife acknowledge that to the best of their knowledge, they have no outstanding joint indebtedness other than that specifically set out herein. However, in the event that any other indebtedness exists, whoever incurred such indebtedness shall be responsible for its repayment. Each party covenants with the other that, from the date of the divorce, neither will contract any indebtedness upon the credit of the other and that, if either shall be compelled to pay any future debt of the other, then the party for whose benefit such payments shall be made will indemnify the other to the full extent of the amount paid, inclusive of interest and legal expenses.

30. The parties agree that all alimony and/or child support or other payments which may be still owing by one party to the other at the time of his or her death shall continue beyond his or her death and shall be debts and obligations which shall be binding on and payable by his or her estate, heirs, and executors as if he or she were still living.
