LAST WILL and TESTAMENT of EDITH CARTER McQUEEN

* *

I, EDITH CARTER MCQUEEN of Nashville, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills and codicils by me at any time heretofore made.

Item I: I direct my Executor hereinafter named to pay all of my just debts and funeral expenses as soon as it is reasonably possible.

BOOK 8877 PAGE 26

Item II: I hereby bequeath to my husband, Marion Paul McQueen, if he survive me, all my property, both personal and real. If he should not survive me, then, in that event, my daughter, Edith Frances McQueen Walton, shall receive my entire estate, both personal and real property.

Item III: I appoint my husband, Marion Paul McQueen, as my Executor and direct that no bond be required of him. In the event that my husband, Marion Paul McQueen, should not survive me, then in that event, I appoint First American National Bank of Nashville, Tennessee, as my Executor.

In witness whereof I have signed my name hereto on this 17th Day of December, 1971

Edith Carter McQueen

Signed by the said Edith Carter McQueen as and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who at her request and in her sight and presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses.
