LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
DOROTHY F. WOODS

BOOK 9210 PAGE 727

I, Dorothy F. Woods, a resident of 1223 Harwood Drive, Nashville, Tennessee, do make, publish and declare this to be my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, hereby revoking all wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE ONE

All property that I own or am entitled to at the time of my death, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, I bequeath and devise in fee to my son, Jack T. Woods, Jr., if he shall survive me, to be his absolute property, SUBJECT, HOWEVER, to the provisions of subparagraph a hereof. If he shall not survive me, the bequest and devise to such beneficiary, including the provisions of subparagraph a hereof, shall lapse and such property shall be disposed of as directed under other articles hereof.

a. It is my desire, intent and will that my son hold the stocks and bonds I may own at the time of my death, or similar assets producing approximately the same amount of income, (exclusive of the survivorship property owned by me and my son), and pay the dividends and interest therefrom to my husband, Jack T. Woods, if he shall survive me, and to cease at his specific written request and waiver, remarriage or death. It is not my intention nor will that my son shall be required to hold these stocks and bonds, or similar assets, in trust or to act as trustee under this subparagraph. It is my intention, however, that my husband shall pay the income tax on such dividends and interest as long as he receives the benefits thereof.

ARTICLE TWO

If my said son shall not survive me, then I bequeath and devise all of said property described in Article One above, in fee to my grandsons, Mark Lee Woods and Scott Fosson Woods, in equal shares if they or either of them shall survive me to be their absolute property, or the absolute property of the survivor of them, to be held and administered by trustee for their use and benefit until the youngest one becomes 21 years of age, SUBJECT, HOWEVER, to the provisions of subparagraph a hereof. If they shall not survive me, the bequest and devise to such beneficiaries shall lapse and such property shall be disposed of as directed under other articles hereof.

a. At the time of execution of this will I have the two above-named grandsons. If subsequent to the execution of this will there shall be additional grandchild or grandchildren (or adopted by my son), and if such grandchild or grandchildren shall survive me, then and in such event, such grandchild or grandchildren shall share in the benefits of my estate equally and in the same extent as my aforementioned two grandsons; and the provisions of this will shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to effectuate such intention.

ARTICLE THREE

If my said son and grandsons or grandchildren shall not survive me, then I bequeath a life estate in the dividends, income and interest from all of such property described in Article One above to my husband, Jack T. Woods, if he shall survive me. In the event he should predecease me, or at his subsequent death, then all of said property described in Article One above I bequeath and devise in fee unto my surviving sisters, Helen Gross and Virginia Ballinger, in equal shares, with the provision that the share of any sister not surviving me shall go to the child of said predeceased sister.

ARTICLE IV

I hereby appoint my son, Jack T. Woods, Jr., as Executor and Trustee of this my will and request that no surety or bond be required of him. I further empower my Executor and Trustee with full and complete power, and without reservations or restrictions, to do any and all acts necessary in the administration of my estate and the trust property, including, but not limited to sale, assignment, transfer and disposal of the property, and the making deeds, bills of sale and all other instruments, releases, etc.,and that the purchaser or purchasers of any or all of said property shall not be required to look to the application of the proceeds thereof. In the event my son is unable or refuses to act as Executor and Trustee then I request that my husband, Jack T. Woods, be appointed as such Executor and Trustee with the same provisions as enumerated above, including no surety or bond be required of him. In the event my husband does not survive me, or is unable or refuses to act, then I request that my nephew, Stephen A. Ballinger, Jr., be appointed as such Executor and Trustee with the same provisions as enumerated above, including no surety or bond be required of him.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have signed the foregoing instrument and declared and published the same as my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, this 5th day of January 1970.
