LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

MAMIE LEE PAYNE

I, Mamie Lee Payne, a resident of Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other Wills heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I

I direct my Executor, hereinafter named, to pay out of my estate, all of my legal obligations, including the expenses of my last illness, and any taxes due by reason of my death.

ARTICLE II

I give, devise and bequeath to my husband, William Manson Payne, all my property, whether real, personal or mixed, and wheresoever situate.

Should my husband predecease me, or in the event that our deaths occur simultaneously, or we die under such circumstances that the order of our deaths cannot be determined, I devise and bequeath all of my estate, whether real, personal or mixed, and wheresoever situate, to be divided equally among Julia Cherry, Lurla Payne and Hershel Payne, or to the survivor or survivors thereof, share and share alike. The survivor or survivors may divide the property in any manner they see fit. They may keep it, give it away or sell it, the proceeds from any sale, however, shall be divided among the survivors.

ARTICLE III

I nominate and appoint my husband, William Manson Payne, as Executor of my Will and no bond shall be required of him. Should he be deceased, or be unable or unwilling to serve, I

Mamie Lee Payne

We, Mae Nathan Hunt and Nathan Hunt, being the attesting witnesses to the foregoing will of Mamie Lee Payne, and being first duly sworn, make oath that Mamie Lee Payne signed the foregoing Will consisting of two typewritten pages, this not included, on this the 8th day of May, 1976, in our joint sight and presence and declared the same to be her Last Will and Testament; and that we in her sight and presence and in the sight and presence of each other, at her request signed our names thereto as attesting witnesses; that we believed the said Mamie Lee Payne to be, at that time, of sound mind and disposing memory; and that this affidavit is being made at the request of the said Testatrix.

WITNESS our signatures on this the 8th day of May, 1976.

Mae Nathan Hunt
