O R D E R

This cause came on to be heard on the 19th day of April, 1961, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the motion of the complainant for alimony and child support pendente lite. Upon the proof, the defendant being present in Court but not represented by counsel, and thus upon the statement of complainant and the defendant, the Court finds that the complainant is entitled to $230.00 a month for the support of herself and their two children.

It is, therefore, ORDERED and ADJUDGED that complainant have and recover of the defendant the sum of $230.00 a month, to be paid in equal installments on the 1st and 15th of each month, until further orders of the Court.

the allegations of her bill for divorce and that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment as makes further cohabitation unsafe and improper. The Court finds further that the property settlement agreement made between the parties is fair and equitable and that pertinent provisions thereof should be made a part of this decree, to indicate approval of the Court. The Court further finds that the complainant is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties and that the defendant should have reasonable rights of visitation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the complainant be and is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the complainant be and is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties, to-wit: James Randall Griggs, age eighteen, and Mary Carolyn Griggs, age thirteen, with reasonable rights of visitation to the defendant. The defendant, Samuel P. Griggs, shall pay complainant the sum of $120.00 per month, commencing July 1, 1961, for the support of the two minor children named, until each of them shall marry, start work, or attain full age.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all furniture and household goods owned by the parties will become the sole property of Lura Elizabeth Griggs, the complainant, except that each party may retain his or her personal effects and similar items, and Samuel P. Griggs will discharge any outstanding indebtedness thereon as same shall fall due. The 1959 Chevrolet automobile shall become the sole property of Lura Elizabeth Griggs, and he shall make proper conveyance thereof to the said Lura Elizabeth Griggs, and she shall hold her husband harmless from any indebtedness or lien against the said automobile hereafter incurred, except the present outstanding indebtedness thereon in the approximate sum of $1,400.00, which is payable in monthly installments of $108.00 per month, which will be paid by the defendant as same shall fall due. The automobile presently owned by Samuel P. Griggs and registered in his name shall remain his property, but he shall hold Lura Elizabeth Griggs harmless from any indebtedness on said automobile. The defendant Samuel P. Griggs will discharge all outstanding indebtedness incurred for the medical care and clothing of the children of the parties in the aggregate sum of approximately $120.00.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant Samuel P. Griggs will convey all his right, title and interest by valid deed of conveyance, to the property located at 304 Bonnacroft Drive, Donelson, Tennessee, to complainant Lura Elizabeth Griggs as a partial satisfaction of his marital obligation to her, and that the said Lura Elizabeth Griggs will assume as between
