IDENTIF. & REFERENCE

This cause come on to be heard on this the 14th day of May, 1979, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, upon the original complainant for an absolute divorce, answer of the defendant, subsequently withdrawn, testimony of complainant in open court, statements of the attorneys of record and upon the entire record in the cause from all of which the court is of the opinion and finds that the parties have experienced irreconcible differences and have made an agreement adequately disposing of their property and providing for their children; said agreement being oral but which is to be incorporated into this decree and executed by both parties.

It is, therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the complainant is granted an absoluted divorce upon the grounds of irreconcible differences and is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

That the hereinafter stated settlement agreement is hereby approved and becomes the order of the court.

That her maiden name of PEDIGO is restored.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

That the home of the parties located at 6463 Thunderbird Drive, Nashville, Tennessee is to be held by the parties as tenants in common and if and when sold the net proceeds are to be equally divided. That Roy Thomas Rigby shall have the right to reside therein and shall make the monthly payments.

That Roy Thomas Rigby shall have the complete care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties, but that Stella L. Rigby shall have reasonable visitation privileges.

That Stella L. Rigby shall pay to Roy Thomas Rigby the sum of $100,00 each and every month as her reasonable contribution towards the support of the minor children.

That each party agrees that each now has in his or her possession those items of personal property each needs and desires.

That each party shall be responsible for his or her own attorney fees, and that they shall equally share the court costs with Stella L. Rigby to be given credit for any advance deposit she has paid.
