JEANNE M. HARDISON

DECLARATION OF TRUST

JEANNE M. HARDISON, of the City of Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida, declares that she is Grantor of this Trust and that she holds the property described in Article II as Trustee for her own benefit and for the benefit of her children, CRAIG L. HARDISON and JAN MARIE BAGINSKI, and for any other persons she may designate.

ARTICLE I
SUCCESSION OF TRUSTEES

Section 1 The immediate Co-Successor Trustees to the Grantor during her lifetime shall be CRAIG L. HARDISON and JAN MARIE BAGINSKI.

Section 2 If the Grantor is acting as Trustee at the time of her death, CRAIG L. HARDISON and JAN MARIE BAGINSKI, shall succeed the Grantor as Co-Trustees.

Section 3 If neither CRAIG L. HARDISON nor JAN MARIE BAGINSKI is able or willing to serve as Trustee for any reason, KEITH WALTON, of Boca Raton, Florida, shall succeed as Trustee hereunder.

Section 4 When the term Trustee is used without other words of description it shall refer to any Trustee or to all Trustees acting at the time the term is applied.

ARTICLE II
FUNDING

Property which is acceptable to the Trustee may be transferred to the Trustee by the Grantor or by others. Such transfers may be accomplished at any time by any instrument, including a LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

ARTICLE III
GRANTOR'S LIFETIME RIGHTS

Section 1 The Grantor may at any time, in writing, revoke or amend this instrument. This right of revocation or amendment shall be personal to the Grantor and may not be exercised by any other person acting for her.

Section 2 The Grantor reserves the right to use or to direct the payment of any part of or all of the net income and the principal of the trust for her own benefit, for the benefit of her children and grandchildren, or for the benefit of any other person.

(a) If the Grantor is unable, in the opinion of the then acting Trustee, by reason of mental or physical incapacity to exercise this right, the Trustee shall apply so much of the net income and the principal of the trust as it shall determine, in its discretion, is necessary for the support, comfort and welfare of the Grantor, and any other persons determined by the Trustee to be wholly or partially dependent upon the Grantor for their support. The Successor Trustee shall always give first consideration to the needs of the Grantor.

RAYMOND, RUPP & WIENBERG, P.C.

(b) The Successor Trustee shall succeed the Grantor as Trustee in the event a Conservator or guardian is appointed for Grantor by a court of competent jurisdiction, or if two (2) physicians who are doctors of medicine or of osteopathy (one [1] of whom shall be the physician then serving the Grantor's family, if there is one so serving), with qualifications acceptable to the Successor Trustee, render written opinions that Grantor, by reason of physical or mental infirmity, has become incapacitated to the extent that she is unable to act in her own behalf. The Trustee succeeding Grantor may at any time determine that Grantor is no longer incapacitated and, upon certification by two (2) physicians as set forth previously in this subsection or upon the restoration of Grantor to full capacity by court order, Grantor shall again act as the sole Trustee and shall have all of the powers she possessed prior to the appointment of a guardian for her or the determination of her incapacity, as the case may be.

(c) Any Successor Trustee to Grantor shall not be liable or responsible in any way for its determinations as to Grantor's capacity or incapacity so long as it acts in good faith.

Section 3 While she is acting as Trustee, the Grantor shall have the right to deal with the trust estate and its assets for her own benefit or for the benefit of any other person in any manner she chooses, notwithstanding any provisions of this Agreement, or any rule of law or statute now in existence or later enacted, limiting powers which may properly be exercised by a fiduciary.

ARTICLE IV
ADMINISTRATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF TRUST

Upon the death of the Grantor, after the Trustee makes provision for expenditures required under the provisions of Article IX, the entire body and corpus of the trust property and estate shall be held, administered and disposed of as follows:

Section 1 The Trustee shall set aside the sum of Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) Dollars as a separate trust, to be administered and distributed as follows:

(a) So long as either Grantor's mother, BERENICE KRITE, of Belleville, Illinois, or NETTIE HARDISON, of Nashville, Tennessee, is living, the Trustee shall distribute so much of the income and principal of this separate trust to or for the benefit of the named persons, or any one of them, in such equal or unequal proportions and amounts as the Trustee determines, in its discretion, is necessary for the health, maintenance and support of such named persons. All undistributed income shall be periodically added to principal.

(b) Upon the death of the survivor of BERENICE KRITE and NETTIE HARDISON, the Trustee shall distribute the assets of this separate trust equally to Grantor's children, CRAIG L. HARDISON and JAN MARIE BAGINSKI, outright and free of trust, or if either of such children shall not then be living, the share of such deceased child shall be distributed to his or her then living children equally.

Section 2 The Trustee shall continue to hold the real property described below for the benefit of NETTIE HARDISON, for so long as she is able to reside therein:

Real property and improvements thereon in Davidson County, State of Tennessee, described as follows, to-wit:

RAYMOND, RUPP & WIENBERG, P.C.

Being Lot No. 42 on the Plan of Bellshire Estates, Section 1, of record in Book 2133, page 124, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tenn. Said Lot No. 42 fronts 280 feet on the westerly side of Devonshire Drive and extends back between lines 285 feet on the southerly side and 287 feet on the northerly side to a dead line in the rear, on which it measures 112.8 feet.

Being the same property conveyed to V. E. Hardison and wife, Nettie May Hardison, by deed from E. R. Sanders et ux of record in Book 2590, page 599, R.O.D.C., Tennessee.

commonly known as 4008 Devonshire Drive, Nashville, Tennessee.

The Trustee shall permit NETTIE HARDISON to reside in said residence for so long as she is able, free of rent or charge, and the Trustee shall pay all expenses of ownership of said residence, including without limitation taxes, insurance, maintenance and assessments, from the trust established in Section 1 of this Article IV. Upon the death of NETTIE HARDISON, or her earlier inability to reside in said residence due to mental or physical infirmity, the Trustee shall distribute said residence equally to Grantor's children, CRAIG L. HARDISON and JAN MARIE BAGINSKI, outright and free of trust, or if either of such children shall not then be living, the share of such deceased child shall be distributed to his or her then living children equally.

Section 3 Grantor's daughter, JAN MARIE BAGINSKI, borrowed the sum of Fifteen Thousand and 00/100 ($15,000.00) Dollars from Grantor in the year 1984, in connection with the purchase of a home in Nebraska, and also borrowed approximately Nine Thousand and 00/100 ($9,000.00) Dollars in connection with the purchase of an automobile. Grantor's son, CRAIG L. HARDISON, borrowed funds from Grantor in or about October, 1984, in connection with obtaining an automobile. If these debts are not paid in full at the time of Grantor's death, Grantor forgives the unpaid balance of this indebtedness, and directs the Trustee to mark any note(s) evidencing these debts "DISCHARGED" and to deliver such note(s) to the respective debtor, and Grantor directs that her children shall owe nothing to her estate or to this Trust on account of these debts.

Section 4 After providing for the provisions of Sections 1, 2 and 3 above, the Trustee shall divide the remaining trust estate between Grantor's children, in the following manner: The assets included in Grantor's residuary estate shall be valued at the values finally determined for estate tax purposes, the total of which values is hereby designated as the "Residue". There shall be added to the Residue the amount of indebtedness forgiven Grantor's children, pursuant to Section 3 of this Article IV, the total being designated as the "Augmented Residue". Each child's share in the Residue shall be represented by the following fractions:

(a) CRAIG L. HARDISON: The numerator shall be the amount by which one-half (1/2) of the Augmented Residue exceeds the amount of indebtedness forgiven him, and the denominator shall be the Residue; and

(b) JAN MARIE BAGINSKI: The numerator shall be the amount by which one-half (1/2) of the Augmented Residue exceeds the amount of indebtedness forgiven her, and the denominator shall be the Residue.

RAYMOND, RUPP & WIENBERG, P.C.

Provided, that if the amount of indebtedness forgiven either child shall exceed one-half (1/2) of the Augmented Residue, that child shall not be required to contribute to the Residue. In that event, the Residue will be distributed entirely to Grantor's other child.

Section 5 Subject to the provisions of Section 7 of this Article IV, the Trustee shall immediately distribute the shares of the then living children of Grantor, outright and free of trust, or if either of such children shall not then be living, the share of such deceased child shall be distributed to his or her then living children equally. Provided however that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Trust, it is Grantor's direction that the home located in Douglas County, Nebraska, being Lot 89 in Pheasant Run Replat II, currently titled in the joint names of Grantor and JAN MARIE BAGINSKI, be allocated to the share of the children of JAN MARIE BAGINSKI, in the event JAN MARIE BAGINSKI predeceases Grantor.

Section 6 If all of the income beneficiaries of any trust administered under this Article die and none of the persons entitled to receive distribution of the trust estate are then living, the trust shall immediately terminate and the remaining trust estate shall be distributed to the persons who would be entitled to receive Grantor's property, such persons taking in the proportions provided by the laws of the State of Florida as if Grantor had died at that time intestate and domiciled in Florida.

Section 7 Whenever the provisions of this Article IV direct the outright distribution of all of or a share of any trust upon its division or termination and, if outright distribution is directed to a person who has not reached the age of twenty-one (21) years or who is not legally competent, the interest of such person shall vest, but the Trustee may, in its discretion, continue to hold and administer the share of such person in further trust until that person reaches the age of twenty-one (21) years or is restored to legal capacity, as the case may be. During such period, the Trustee shall distribute to or for the benefit of such person so much of the income and the principal from the trust as the Trustee determines, in its discretion, is required for the support, comfort, education and welfare of that person, periodically adding any undistributed income to the principal. When that person reaches the age of twenty-one (21) years, or is restored to legal capacity, the entire share shall be distributed to him or her outright. If that person should die before he or she is entitled to distribution under the provisions of this Section, the entire share shall be distributed to his or her estate.

ARTICLE V
PROCEDURES FOR RESIGNATION OF TRUSTEES, REMOVAL OF TRUSTEES AND APPOINTMENT OF SUCCESSOR TRUSTEES

Section 1 The Grantor may resign as Trustee at any time by written declaration of such resignation and acceptance of the trust by the Successor Trustee named in Section 1 of Article I. Any other Trustee shall have the right at any time to resign by mailing written notice to Grantor or to her legal guardian during Grantor's lifetime and, after Grantor's death, to all of the income beneficiaries of the trust or to their legal guardians, and such resignation shall take effect sixty days after the date of such notice. The resigning Trustee shall deliver to each income beneficiary of each trust a statement of all receipts and disbursements of the trust made by it and an inventory of assets then held by it belonging to the trust.

Section 2 Upon the resignation or inability to act of any Trustee, the Grantor and, subsequent to her death, the income beneficiaries of the trust or trusts shall have the right to select a Successor to the Trustee under the following terms and conditions:

RAYMOND, RUPP & WIENBERG, P.C.

(a) Any Successor Corporate Trustee shall be an institution or the wholly owned subsidiary or affiliate of an institution having not less than Fifty Million ($50,000,000.00) Dollars in assets and capital of not less than Ten Million ($10,000,000.00) Dollars.

(b) The removal of the Trustee shall be made effective twenty (20) days after a letter in writing has been sent to the Trustee discharging the Trustee and informing the Trustee of the identity of the selected Successor Trustee.

(c) The Trustee, upon the effective date of its discharge, shall deliver to the Successor Trustee and to each such beneficiary of the trust a statement of all receipts and disbursements of each of the trusts together with an inventory of the assets belonging to the trust.

(d) When the Successor Trustee shall deliver its receipt for the assets of each of the trusts to the Trustee so removed, the latter shall be discharged of all its duties and obligations hereunder.

(e) The removal of the Trustee and the selection of a Successor Trustee by the income beneficiaries of the trust or trusts shall be upon the vote of a majority of the income beneficiaries or of their guardian acting in their behalf.

(f) Any individual Trustee so appointed shall be an Independent Trustee as contemplated by the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 3 If, for any reason, a Successor Trustee is required but is not appointed by the effective date of a Trustee's resignation, the resigning Trustee may select and appoint its successor or, at the expense of the trust, seek the appointment of a successor by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 4 Whenever a Trustee ceases to act, the Successor Trustee shall have all of the titles, powers, rights, discretions, obligations and immunities of its predecessor Trustee.

Section 5 The Trustee who succeeds directly from Grantor shall accept the trust and its assets without any accounting at the time of Grantor's death, resignation or inability to continue to act as Trustee, and it shall be conclusively presumed that Grantor acted properly at all times in holding and managing the trust estate for the benefit of herself or any other person.

Section 6 Whenever the provisions of this Article V authorize the appointment or selection, by a person other than the Grantor, of a Successor Trustee upon the resignation or removal of any then serving Trustee, if a Successor Trustee is provided for pursuant to Article I hereof, then the terms of Article I shall govern notwithstanding any term or provision contained in this Article V to the contrary.

ARTICLE VI
TRUSTEE'S POWERS, RIGHTS AND DUTIES

Section 1 It is Grantor's intention that the Trustee's powers to conserve, protect, manage and invest property of the trust shall be the same as the Grantor possessed in the management of her own affairs, notwithstanding the provisions of any rule of law or statute now in existence or later enacted pertaining to powers which may be properly exercised by fiduciaries.

RAYMOND, RUPP & WIENBERG, P.C.

Section 2 Without limiting the broad scope of the powers intended by this Article, the Trustee shall possess the following specific powers:

(a) To collect, hold and retain assets received from Grantor's estate until, in the judgment of the Trustee, disposition of the assets should be made, and the assets may be retained even though they include an asset in which the Trustee is personally interested and to receive additions to the assets of the trust which are acceptable to the Trustee.

(b) To sell any trust asset upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee may deem advisable; to acquire an undivided interest in a trust asset in which the Trustee, in any trust capacity, holds an undivided interest; to invest and reinvest trust assets; to deposit trust funds in a bank or trust company, including a bank or trust company operated by the Trustee; to vote a security, in person or by general or limited proxy, including the power to retain in trust and vote a security issued by a bank or financial institution; to pay calls, assessments, and any other sums chargeable or accruing against or on account of securities; to sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights; or consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, or liquidation of a corporation or other business enterprise.

(c) To hold real property or a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the trust, so that the title to the real property or security may pass by delivery, but the Trustee is liable for any act of the nominee in connection with the land or security so held.

(d) To insure the assets of the trust against damage or loss, and the Trustee against liability with respect to third persons.

(e) To borrow money to be repaid from trust assets or otherwise; and advance money for the protection of the trust, and for expenses, losses, or liabilities sustained in the administration of the trust or because of the holding or ownership of any trust assets, for which advances with any interest the Trustee has a lien on the trust assets as against the beneficiary.

(f) To pay or contest a claim; to settle a claim by or against the trust or the trust assets by compromise, arbitration, or otherwise; and to release, in whole or in part, a claim belonging to the trust to the extent that the claim is uncollectible in the opinion of the Trustee.

(g) To buy, sell, trade and deal in, stocks, bonds and securities of every nature, including puts, calls, straddles and other options, covered and uncovered, of every kind of nature, and commodities of every nature, and contracts for the future delivery of commodities of every nature, on margin or otherwise; and, pledge any and all trust assets for the future delivery thereof.

(h) To employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisors, or agents, even if they are associated with the Trustee, to advise or assist the Trustee in the performance of its administrative duties; act without independent investigation upon their recommendations; and instead of acting personally, employ an agent to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary.

RAYMOND, RUPP & WIENBERG, P.C.

(i) To prosecute or defend actions, claims, or proceedings for the protection of trust assets and of the Trustee in the performance of the Trustee's duties.

(j) In connection with real property held in the trust, the Trustee may, in its discretion, exercise or refrain from exercising the following powers:

(i) To buy or sell real property upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee may deem advisable.

(ii) To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, demolish any improvements, or erect new party walls or buildings.

(iii) To subdivide and develop land, or dedicate land to public use; make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries; adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; or dedicate easements to public use without consideration.

(iv) To enter for any purpose into a lease as lessor or lessee with or without option to purchase or renew for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust.

(v) As to oil, gas, and mineral interests, to drill, test, explore, mine, develop, and otherwise to exploit the interests; in connection therewith to pay from principal or income all delay rentals, lease bonuses, royalties, overriding royalties, taxes, assessments, and other charges; and to surrender or abandon an interest; to enter into farmout pooling, unitization, or dry hole contribution agreements in connection therewith; and to produce, process, sell or exchange the production from the interest in a manner and extent as the Trustee, in its sole discretion, deems advisable.

(vi) To execute and deliver a deed of conveyance for cash payment of all sums remaining due or a purchaser's note for the sum remaining due secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on the land.

(vii) To deliver a deed in escrow with directions that the proceeds, when paid in accordance with the Escrow Agreement, be paid to the Trustee, as designated in the Escrow Agreement.

(k) To perform, compromise, or refuse performance of Grantor's contracts that continue as obligations of Grantor's estate, as the Trustee determines under the circumstances. In performing Grantor's enforceable contracts of the trust the Trustee, among other possible choices of action, may effect a fair and reasonable compromise with a debtor or obligor, or extend, renew, or in any manner modify the terms of an obligation owing to the trust. A Trustee who holds a mortgage, pledge, or other lien upon property of another person, may, in lieu of foreclosure, accept the conveyance or transfer of encumbered assets from the owner thereof in satisfaction of the indebtedness secured by lien.

(l) To abandon property when, in the opinion of the Trustee, it is valueless, or is so encumbered or is in condition that it is not of benefit to the trust.

(m) To determine whether to join with Grantor or her Personal Representative, in the execution and filing of any income or gift tax return.

RAYMOND, RUPP & WIENBERG, P.C.

(n) To pay taxes, assessments, compensation of the Trustee, and other expenses incurred in the collection, care, administration, and protection of the trust.

(o) To make any elections required or permitted under any tax law, and to make any determinations of value for any tax purposes.

(p) The Trustee shall report at least annually to the income beneficiaries all the receipts and disbursements during the reporting period, and assets then held in the trust.

(q) To make distributions, divisions and allocations of property in cash or in kind, or partly in each, and to resolve doubtful questions as to the value of property for such purposes. Whenever the provisions of this Declaration of Trust direct the division of the trust estate into separate equal shares or trusts, it shall not be necessary for the Trustee actually or physically to divide the trust estate into as many parts as there may be trusts, but an undivided part of the entire trust estate (or any lesser portion thereof) may be deemed, and shall be duly evidenced by appropriate book entries, to have been definitely allocated to each such trust.

(r) To determine the identity of all persons having a vested or non-vested beneficial interest in the trust, with or without legal proceedings.

(s) To make determinations as to the allocation of receipts and the apportionment of expenditures between income and principal. The Trustee shall not be required to follow any provision of law regarding such determinations.

(t) To pay any sum distributable to a beneficiary under legal disability, without liability to the Trustee, by paying the sum to the beneficiary, or by paying the sum for the use of the beneficiary or to a legal representative appointed by the court, or if none, to a relative, for the use of the beneficiary.

(u) If, after the death of Grantor, the dispositive provisions and the provisions setting forth the powers and duties of the Trustee in this trust are determined by the Trustee in the exercise of its discretion to be the same as such provisions of any other trust established by the Grantor, and such other trust is irrevocable (whether from its inception or due to the death of its Grantor), the Trustee, under this trust may, in its discretion, take distribution from, or make distribution of the assets of any trust hereunder to, the Trustee of any such other trust established by the Grantor in order to merge such trusts for purposes of administrative convenience.

Section 3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Declaration of Trust, the income beneficiaries of any trust under this Declaration of Trust, at any time, shall have the right, to appoint or discharge any individual or firm as Investment Advisor, under the following terms and conditions:

(a) Upon a unanimous vote, the income beneficiaries may appoint such an Investment Advisor and shall notify the Trustee in writing of the Investment Advisor selected by such income beneficiaries.

(b) The Trustee shall accept without question the directions for the purchase, sale, investment, and reinvestment of the trust assets given to the Trustee by the Investment Advisor in writing.

RAYMOND, RUPP & WIENBERG, P.C.

(c) The Trustee shall not be liable or responsible in any manner whatsoever to any person interested in any trust under this Declaration of Trust for any losses to the trust estate of any such trust by reason of purchases, sales, investments or reinvestments of any assets of the trust estate by the Trustee pursuant to directions given by such Investment Advisor.

(d) At any time a majority of the income beneficiaries of any such trust may discharge an Investment Advisor. A written notice of the discharge of an Investment Advisor shall be given by such income beneficiaries of such trust to the Trustee.

(e) If an Investment Advisor is discharged, and a substitute Investment Advisor is not appointed by the income beneficiaries within ten (10) days after written notice of the discharge of the Investment Advisor, the Trustee shall thereupon again assume all the duties and responsibilities with respect to the purchase, sale, investments, and reinvestment of the trust assets previously granted to the Trustee under the provisions of Sections 1 and 2 of this Article.

ARTICLE VII
RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF TRUSTEES BETWEEN THEMSELVES

Section 1 After Grantor's death, no Trustee who may be entitled to a discretionary distribution under any provisions of this instrument shall participate in any determinations relating to such distribution.

Section 2 If more than two Trustees are acting at any time, all matters requiring or permitting the exercise of discretion by the Trustee shall be determined by a majority of the Trustees then acting.

Section 3 A Trustee not permitted to exercise discretion or foreclosed from exercising discretion by a majority vote of the remaining Trustees shall not be liable to any person for any damage resulting from such exercise of discretion.

ARTICLE VIII
INSURANCE AND OTHER DEATH BENEFITS

Section 1 The designation of the Trustee as beneficiary of death benefits payable under any life insurance policies shall in no way affect any of the rights of the owner or owners of such policies.

Section 2 During the lifetime of Grantor, the Trustee shall not be required to pay any charges with respect to any life insurance policies on the life of Grantor or any other person.

Section 3 At Grantor's death, the Trustee shall make a diligent effort to collect all death benefits payable to the Trustee and the Trustee may take any action necessary to enforce payment of death benefits. However, it need not take any such action until it has been indemnified to its satisfaction against all expenses and liabilities to which it determines it may be subjected.

Section 4 The Trustee is authorized to settle claims arising out of any instrument governing the payment of death benefits and its decisions shall be binding upon all persons having a beneficial interest in the trust estate, whether or not such interest is a vested one.

RAYMOND, RUPP & WIENBERG, P.C.

Section 5 No person making payment to the Trustee shall be required to take notice of any of the provisions of this instrument or to see the disposition of any such payment. The receipt of the Trustee to any person making such payment shall release and discharge that person for any such payment and shall be binding on all persons having a beneficial interest in the trust estate, whether or not such interest is a vested one.

ARTICLE IX
ADMINISTRATION OF GRANTOR'S ESTATE

Section 1 At Grantor's death, the Trustee may purchase any property forming a part of the probate estate of Grantor. The Trustee may make loans, with or without security or interest, to Grantor's Personal Representative.

Section 2 To the extent that United States Treasury Bonds held in the trust are redeemable at par in payment of the Federal estate tax payable by reason of Grantor's death, the Trustee shall apply the redemption proceeds of such bonds in payment of the Federal estate tax. To the extent that other property from sources other than the trust is not available to provide the necessary funds, the Trustee may, in its discretion, pay Grantor's funeral, burial and memorial expenses, taxes on Grantor's income or property which are due and unpaid, or which are a lien at Grantor's death, family allowances and administration expenses of Grantor's estate, debts of Grantor which the Trustee determines to be legally enforceable against the Grantor and to have survived Grantor's death, Federal estate taxes remaining after redemption proceeds of United States Treasury Bonds are applied, and all inheritance and succession taxes payable by reason of Grantor's death. No reimbursement shall be secured from any person for any payments made under the provisions of this Section.

(a) To the extent that other property is available, the Trustee shall not pay any such expenses with proceeds received from any pension, profit sharing or stock bonus plan which is a "qualified plan" under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, or from any assets which are traceable to such pension, profit sharing or stock bonus proceeds.

(b) The Trustee may make these payments directly or to Grantor's Personal Representative. The Trustee may rely upon the written statements of Grantor's Personal Representative as to all facts relating to these payments.

ARTICLE X
EARLY TERMINATION OF A TRUST

Section 1 After Grantor's death, except as may otherwise be provided in this Declaration of Trust, any trust may be terminated earlier than the time provided in this Declaration of Trust when the Trustee, in its discretion, determines that such action would be in the best interest of the income beneficiaries because of circumstances not known or contemplated during Grantor's lifetime. Such circumstances would include, but not be limited to, significant depletion of the trust assets or changes in law which tend to negate the trust purposes.

Section 2 Upon making a decision for early termination of a trust, the Trustee shall distribute all of the trust estate to the income beneficiaries in accordance with their separate shares of trust estate, or, if separate shares have not been established, to the income beneficiaries in equal shares. No person named to receive ultimate distribution of the principal, whether or not such right is vested, shall have any claim against such early distribution to other persons.

ARTICLE XI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1 Notwithstanding any other provisions in this Declaration of Trust, the trusts established under this Declaration of Trust shall terminate not later than twenty-one years after the death of the last survivor of the following persons who are living at the date of Grantor's death: Grantor's children, and the descendants of Grantor's children. At that time, the property held in trust shall be discharged of any trust, and shall immediately vest in and be distributed to the income beneficiaries of the trust.

Section 2 Unless otherwise specifically provided for in this Declaration of Trust, all matters requiring or permitting the exercise of discretion by the Trustee shall be determined by the Trustee in its sole and absolute discretion, and shall be conclusive on all persons having a vested or non-vested beneficial interest in the trust.

Section 3 The principal and income of the trusts established hereunder shall not be liable for the debts of any beneficiary hereunder, nor shall the same be subject to seizure by any creditor or any beneficiary under any writ or proceeding at law or in equity, and no beneficiary hereunder shall have any power to sell, assign, transfer, encumber or in any other manner anticipate or dispose of his or her interest in the principal or in the income produced thereby.

RAYMOND, RUPP & WIENBERG, P.C.
