RICHARD R. ROCKER, CLERK

By Molly Ray
Deputy Clerk

#2

To my brother I leave all my fishing equipment. Also a double barrel 12 GA shotgun - a stainless steel 44 charter arms - a stainless steel 22 small handgun. The ammunition can be divided with Richard and my brother-in-law Bill Libby. Also if there is any split between Patty and Richard. Patty can be the both I'm sure will be divided equally.

To Patty a 38 snub nose Taurus - 45 auto pistol - a 12. GA pump shotgun, and whatever she may want as executor. The old 77 Lincoln disposed by sale and not to be junked and to try to get what what it will bring. The title is signed. The 84 Ford crown Victoria I leave to Patty's discretion. I feel sorry for her and the trouble she may have but I know she will do her best and also I leave the house at 2614 Sterling Boone Dr to her since my brother declined this offer to him several times. This is the final of this Last Will and Testament
