Last Will and Testament

OF

ELIZABETH THOMAS HARRIS BOOK 9500 PG 383

I, ELIZABETH THOMAS HARRIS, a resident of Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this instrument as my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, hereby revoking all wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

I am a widow, and I have one child, CHERI AUTUMN THOMAS TAYLOR.

I. I direct that all my just and legally enforceable debts, my funeral expenses, and the costs of administration of my estate be paid out of my general estate as soon as practicable after my death. To this end I authorize my Executor to sell any of my property, real, personal, or mixed, and to do every other act or thing necessary or appropriate for the complete administration of my estate.

II. Various personal items and effects should be distributed in accordance with a Letter of Instructions attached to this instrument. In the event of conflict or disagreement, or in any instance in which my wishes are not perfectly clear, I authorize my Executor to follow his conscience and good judgment in making the final decision as to such disposition(s).

III. My house at 4506 Glendale Place in Nashville will ultimately go to my daughter CHERI, who presently lives in the house. However, I wish the house to be held in trust for at least one year following my death. During that year, and until such time as title is put in her name, my daughter CHERI may continue to live in the house. CHERI must pay all taxes and maintenance costs on the house, and must make all mortgage payments still outstanding that become due during the time the Trust exists.

I direct that said property remain in trust until my Trustee, in his sole discretion, is satisfied that my daughter CHERI has demonstrated the kind of maturity and discriminating taste in connection with her associates and lifestyle that would please her mother. At such time as the Trustee determines to be appropriate, the house is to be deeded in fee to CHERI and her heirs per stirpes.

IV. All the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, of every kind, character, and description, of which I die possessed or in which I have any right or interest, I give, devise, and bequeath to my daughter CHERI, if at the time of my death she has attained the age of thirty-five (35) years.

If at the time of my death CHERI has not attained the age of 35 years, Cheri's Part is to be held in trust until she attains the age of 35, except that CHERI may receive the income from the Trust. However, if CHERI should at any time have a sincere and legitimate need for money, or if my Trustee is convinced CHERI has the maturity to handle the entire sum wisely, it may be given to her in full.

V. I nominate and appoint my friend GEORGE E. HILL, SR., as Executor and Trustee of my estate, and direct that no bond or sureties be required for the faithful performance of his duties, and no court accountings or inventories be required. For his help and services in administering my estate and the Trust set out herein, I direct that he receive, immediately upon qualifying as Executor, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), and that, in addition, he receive a reasonable fee and reimbursement of all expenses and, in addition, all money owed to him, which is on record.

If for any reason GEORGE E. HILL is unable to serve as my Executor and Trustee, I nominate and appoint my friend GARY EDWARD BATES as my Executor and Trustee, and direct that no bond or sureties be required for the faithful performance of his duties, and no court accountings or inventories be required.

I authorize my Executor, in the exercise of a reasonable discretion with respect to all property, real and personal, at any time forming part of my estate, to exercise any or all the powers set forth in Tennessee Code Annotated 35-50-110, to the extent applicable, all of which provisions and powers are incorporated by reference as fully as if copied verbatim herein.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name this 15th day of March, 1990, and do publish and declare this my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, consisting of three typewritten pages, and for the purpose of identification I have initialed each such page in the presence of each and all of the subscribing witnesses whom I have requested to act as such by signing their names as attesting witnesses in my presence and in the presence of each other, and by signing the following affidavit pursuant to the provisions of Tennessee Code Annotated 32-2-110.
