I, Earl D. Suggs, a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament and hereby revoke all other wills or codicils thereto, heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I

I direct that my Executor, hereinafter name, or my Contingent Executor, if he is called on to serve, pay out of my general estate, all my just debts, expenses of my last illness, my funeral expenses and all expenses of administration, including any estate or inheritance tax that may be charged against my estate, all of the above witout any allocation to or reimbursement from any devisee, legatee or beneficiary.

ARTICLE II

After the payment of all the items of expense outlined in Article I, above, I give, bequeath and devise all of the rest, residue and remainder of my property, both real and personal, to my brother, Marion E. Suggs.Should my said brother predecease me, I then give, bequeath and devise all of the rest, residue and remainder of my property, both real and personal, to my sister-in-law, Margaret J. Suggs.

ARTICLE III

I hereby appoint my brother, Marion E. Suggs, as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament and because of my confidence in him he is to serve without bond. Should my said brother predecease me or should he for any reason be unable or unwilling to serve, I name as Contingent Executor, my nephew, Gary G. Suggs, and if he is called on to serve, he is to serve without bond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this my Last Will and Testament on this 2nd day of April 1981, consisting of three (3) typewritten pages including the attestation clause and an Affidavit which I have requested the attesting witnesses to execute.

Earl D. Suggs, Testator

The foregoing instrument was signed, published and declared by the Testator, Earl D. Suggs, as and for his Last Will and Testament in the sight and presence of us and each of us and we at the same time at his request and in his sight and presence and in the sight and presence of each other and believing him to be of sound mind have hereunto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses on this 2nd day of April, 1981.
