FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on May 17, 1974, before Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, upon plaintiff's complaint, judgment by default entered against defendant, testimony of witnesses for plaintiff in open Court, defendant's answers to interrogatories, statements of counsel for both parties and the entire record herein from all of which the Court finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are sustained by the proof; that defendant is guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct toward plaintiff as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper; that as alimony in solido plaintiff should be awarded defendant's interest in the home at 3602 Woodmont Lane; that plaintiff should be awarded alimony in futuro on the same basis as the pendente lite order of October 3, 1973; that plaintiff should recover from defendant $650 for one half of the tuition for the parties' son at Vanderbilt University for the semester beginning in January, 1974, all of which plaintiff paid; that defendant should be required to pay one half of said tuition for said son for three additional years at Vanderbilt Univeristy; that defendant shall transfer to the parties' son the insurance policy with Sun Life Insurance Company insuring the son's life; that defendant should not remove plaintiff as beneficiary of any insurance policies on his life; and that defendant should pay plaintiff's attorney a fee of $750. It is therefore ORDERED and DECREED by the Court as follows:

1. Plaintiff, Opal Alyne Allen, is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from defendant, Omel Bill Allen, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between plaintiff and defendant are perpetually dissolved.

2. All interest of defendant in and to the home at 3602 Woodmont Lane, Davidson County, Tennessee, and the furniture, furnishings and appliances therein, formerly owned by the parties as tenants by the entirety are divested out of defendant and vested in plaintiff and defendant shall execute and deliver to plaintiff a deed conveying his interest in said home to plaintiff.

3. Defendant shall pay to plaintiff on Friday of each week alimony of one third of all funds that have come to him from all sources during each week, provided that defendant shall not be obligated to pay a total of more than $250 alimony in any one month.

4. Defendant shall pay to plaintiff $650 representing one half of the $1300 tuition for the parties' son at Vanderbilt University for the second semester of the latest school year, which defendant was previously ordered to pay by pendente lite order of September 19, 1973.

5. Defendant shall pay one half of the tuition at Vanderbilt University for the parties' son, Steven Michael Allen, when and as said tuition comes due, for an additional three years of college.

6. Defendant shall take such action as is necessary to transfer to the parties' said son all defendant's interest in the life insurance policy with Sun Life Insurance Company insuring the life of said son.

7. Defendant shall not take any action to change the status of plaintiff as beneficiary on any insurance policy on defendant's life.

8. Defendant shall pay plaintiff's attorney, Maclin P. Davis, Jr., Esq., a fee of $750.

9. The costs of this cause are taxed against defendant.
