LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

BOOK 9668 PG 946

EVIE VIO (WILSON) PATTERSON

I, Evie Vio (Wilson) Patterson, a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament and I do hereby revoke and annul all other wills and codicils heretofore made, published or declared by me.

ITEM ONE: I direct that my Executrix, hereinafter appointed, pay all of my just debts, funeral expenses, all fees and expenses incident to the administration of my estate and estate and inheritance taxes occasioned or made payable by reason of my death, including such taxes as may be so assessed on account of policies of insurance upon my life or jointly owned property or other property taxable as a part of my estate, but not coming into the hands of my Executrix as soon as practicable after my death.

ITEM TWO: I give, devise and bequeath to my husband, Forest Rufus Patterson, if he survives me by more than thirty (30) days, all of my property, real, personal or mixed, of whatsoever kind and wheresoever situated, to be placed in trust to be held, managed, invested and reinvested for the following purposes subject to the terms and conditions set forth below:

a. My Co-Trustees, hereinafter appointed, shall, during my spouse's lifetime, be authorized to pay to or apply for the benefit of my spouse all or any portion of the income or principal of the trust for the care, health and maintenance of my spouse as my Co-Trustees may deem advisable in their sole and absolute discretion, adding any unused income to the principal of said trust at the end of each year.

b. Upon the death of my spouse, this trust shall completely terminate and all undistributed principal and interest shall be paid to my then living issue per stirpes.

c. No person dealing with the Co-Trustees shall be obliged to inquire as to their powers or to see into the application of any money or property delivered to them. The Co-Trustees shall not be required to obtain authority or approval of any court in the exercise of power conferred upon them hereunder. The Co-Trustees shall not be required to make any current reports or accounting to the court nor to furnish a bond for the proper performance of their duties thereunder.

d. If the Co-Trustees shall be compelled, at any time during the existence of the trust, or thereafter, to pay any tax or interest or penalty with respect thereto for any reason, they shall be entitled to be reimbursed from the principal of the trust; or if the trust principal be then insufficient, or if it then be terminated, the Co-Trustees shall be reimbursed by the persons to whom the principal of the trust shall have been distributed to the extent of the amount received by each distributee. The Co-Trustees, before making any distribution of either income or principal may accordingly require an undertaking in form satisfactory to the Co-Trustees to reimburse them, or they may withhold distribution pending the termination or release of any tax lien. The Co-Trustees shall be entitled to receive reasonable compensation for their services.

(E W P)

If my ~~wife~~ husband does not survive me by more than thirty (30) days, I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, real, personal or mixed, of whatseover kind and wheresoever situated, including policies of insurance upon my life, to be given to my children, to-wit: Dorothy Marie Cortner and Anna Jewell Fragasse, equally per stirpes, as they may agree. In making division, if there should be any disagreement among my children, I direct that my Executrix determine and put into effect the method of settling any such disagreement with the division of

of the property to be to be equally among them or as nearly so as possible.

ITEM THREE: Although my spouse and I are executing our wills at or about the same time, it is our desire to make it clear that there has been no contract between my said spouse and me to make a joint testamentary disposition of our property. It is my intention that each of us, individually, during our respective lives, shall have the full power to revoke said wills, to execute codicils thereto or to execute new wills if we so desire, each without the necessity of the other's consent. I intend that my will shall not be revoked by my spouse's death, unless I myself revoke or modify it earlier. It is my intention that if my spouse survives me, she shall have the full power to execute codicils to her said will or to revoke said will and execute a later will or wills making such disposition of her estate as she may desire in her sole discretion, including all property passing to her under the terms of this will.

ITEM FOUR: In the event it becomes necessary or advisable after I am deceased to appoint a Trustee under the terms of this will, then I nominate and appoint my daughters, Dorothy Marie Cortner and Anna Jewell Fragasse as Co-Trustees of this my Last Will and Testament. I direct that no bond or security shall be required of the above named fiduciaries for the faithful performance of their expected duties.

ITEM FIVE: I nominate and appoint my daughter, Dorothy Marie Cortner, as Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament. In the event that my daughter, Dorothy Marie Cortner is unable, unwilling or fail for any reason to serve as Executrix hereunder, then in such event, I appoint Randolph A. Veazey to serve as her successor. I direct that no bond or security shall be required of the above named fiduciaries for the faithful performance of their expected duties.
