WILL

BOOK 9693 PG 540

I, Maxine Elliott, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other Wills heretofore made by me.

First: I order and direct all my just debts, funeral expenses as well as the cost of administration and settlement of my estate to be paid by my Executrix hereafter named, as soon after my decease as conveniently may be.

Second: All of my estate, real, personal and mixed, of whatever kind and nature and wheresoever situated, remaining after payment of my debts and funeral expenses, I give, devise and bequeath unto Christine Duke, absolutely and in fee. If she not be living then to my brother William Elliott, with the understanding that the estate is for the sole purpose of taking care of the family cemetary and it is my wish that if there be enough money in my estate at my death, then he is to have a paved road installed to said cemetary.

Third: I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint Christine Duke to be the sole Executrix of this last Will and Testament and I direct that she shall not be obligated to file any bond, inventory or appraisement in any public office or tribunal whatsoever, and further I hereby give and grant unto the said Christine Duke full power and authority at any time to sell any real estate which may at any time form part of my estate, for such price, upon such terms, in such way and manner as may be deemed wise, and to make good and sufficient deeds to the purchaser or purchasers thereof without any obligation on the latter to see to or be responsible for the application of the purchase price.

Executed by me on this the 16 day of March, 1971
