MARITAL DISSOLUTION, CHILD CUSTODY AND SUPPORT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is hereby entered into this _____ day of _____, 19____, by and between STACIE LINDSEY NESTOR, hereinafter referred to as "Wife", and STEPHEN PATRICK NESTOR, hereinafter referred to as "Husband";

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, certain differences have arisen between the parties which are irreconcilable and there is now pending in the Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, a suit for divorce between the parties captioned as Stephen Patrick Nestor v. Stacie Lindsey Nestor, Case No. 94D-2478; and,

WHEREAS, it is the decision of the parties insofar as they are able with the concurrence of the Court, to amicably settle their differences with respect to all property rights, support obligations, child custody rights, obligation for the payment of debts, and to enter into a contract for the settlement of such rights and obligations, not only for the present, but for the future, it being their intention that such contract will be effective with respect to all of their property and other matters and concerns subject to the approval of a Court of competent jurisdiction; and,

WHEREAS, both of these parties have been advised of their respective rights, obligations and responsibilities, one to the other, or have had the opportunity to have been so advised by counsel;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, the parties do hereby agree as follows:

1. Each party shall be free from the interference, authority and control, direct or indirect, by the other as fully as if he or she were single and unmarried. Neither shall molest the other or compel or endeavor to compel the other to cohabit from this date hereafter.

2. CUSTODY AND VISITATION --

The parties are the parents of one (1) minor child, Meredith McKenna Nestor, (age 5). It is agreed between the parties that custody of the child shall be vested jointly in the names of the parties, with primary physical possession in the name of the Wife. Husband shall have liberal visitation, ~~including, but not limited to, overnight visitation every~~ Tuesday after school/day care until ~~Wednesday morning~~, at which time the Husband shall return the child to ~~school/day care by the commencement of school/day care at 6:00 a.m.~~ Husband shall have overnight weekend visitation every other weekend, from Friday at 6:00 P.M., until Sunday at 6:00 P.M. It is agreed that the above recital does not restrict the parties to mutually agree on additional time periods for visitation by the Husband upon reasonable notice to the Wife of his desire to exercise additional visitation, and Wife's concurrence therewith. Holiday visitation will take precedence over regular visitation, and will include Mother's Day with the child to be with the Wife, and Father's Day with the child to be with the Husband, and all other holidays (Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, and Easter) to be alternated each year between the parties. Christmas Holidays will be divided between the parties. One parent shall exercise visitation for one week before Christmas until 10:00 P.M. on Christmas Eve with the child and the other parent shall have the child from 10:00 P.M. on Christmas Eve for one week after Christmas, with this Christmas schedule to be alternated each year between the parties. The Wife shall exercise Christmas visitation with the parties' minor child for the year 1995 for one week before Christmas until 10:00 P.M. on Christmas Eve. Thereafter, each year, Christmas Holidays shall be alternated as above set out. The child's birthdays will be split between the parties each year. The Husband is hereby granted extended Summertime visitation of two (2) continuous uninterrupted weeks during the Summer for vacation purposes with the child.

For all visitation, transportation shall be the divided equally between the parties. Husband shall pick the child up from Wife's residence, and Wife shall pick up the child from Husband's residence for all visitation periods as set out in this Agreement.

Neither party shall move from the Middle Tennessee area, as geographically defined, without first giving the other party at least sixty (60) days' written notice of such intent to move so as to allow that party to petition the Court for appropriate relief regarding the protection of his or her custodial and/or visitational rights.

3. CHILD SUPPORT -- Until such time as the Final Decree is granted in this cause, Husband shall pay one-half (1/2) of the day care expense for the minor child, and one-half (1/2) of the mortgage indebtedness on the parties' residence. From and after the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce in this cause, Husband shall pay the Wife the amount of $602.28 per month[1] as reasonable child support, until such time as the child attains the age of eighteen (18), or should she turn eighteen (18) while in high school, until the class in which she is a member at the time of her eighteenth (18th) birthday graduates, which occurs first, Husband is responsible to provide major hospitalization, medical, and dental insurance, on the parties' minor child. Husband shall further assure that child support payments shall be made by maintaining present life insurance policies as provided in paragraph 14 and verifications of policies shall be provided to the Wife upon reasonable request. In the event that Wife instead of Husband is actually providing health, medical, and dental insurance through her employer, Husband shall reimburse Wife for the dependent portion of such coverage by monthly payment. All deductibles as to dependent coverage and above set out. The child's birthdays will be split between the parties each year. The Husband is hereby granted extended Summertime visitation of two (2) continuous uninterrupted weeks during the Summer for vacation purposes with the child.

For all visitation, transportation shall be the divided equally between the parties. Husband shall pick the child up from Wife's residence, and Wife shall pick up the child from Husband's residence for all visitation periods as set out in this Agreement.

Neither party shall move from the Middle Tennessee area, as geographically defined, without first giving the other party at least sixty (60) days' written notice of such intent to move so as to allow that party to petition the Court for appropriate relief regarding the protection of his or her custodial and/or visitational rights.

3. CHILD SUPPORT --

Until such time as the Final Decree is granted in this cause, Husband shall pay one-half (1/2) of the day care expense for the minor child, and one-half (1/2) of the mortgage indebtedness on the parties' residence. From and after the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce in this cause, Husband shall pay the Wife the amount of $602.28 per month[1] as reasonable child support, until such time as the child attains the age of eighteen (18), or should she turn eighteen (18) while in high school, until the class in which she is a member at the time of her eighteenth (18th) birthday graduates. Husband is responsible to provide major hospitalization, medical, and dental insurance, on the parties' minor child. Husband shall further assure that child support payments shall be made by maintaining present life insurance policies as provided in paragraph 14 and verifications of policies shall be provided to the Wife upon reasonable request. In the event that Wife is actually providing health, medical, and dental insurance through her employer, Husband shall reimburse Wife for the dependent portion of such coverage by monthly payment. All deductibles as to dependent coverage and any portion not covered by any applicable insurance shall be borne equally by Husband and Wife. Upon receipt of any such health care expense from Wife to Husband reflecting the non-covered expense, Husband shall pay such one-half (1/2) expense direct to the health care provider, and shall provide written notice to Wife of the forwarding of such payment. The amount of child support as set out in this Agreement cannot be reduced nor prorated without prior Court approval. Pursuant to T.C.A. §36-5-101(8), the parties affirmatively acknowledge that no action by them will be effective to reduce child support after the due date of each payment, that they understand that Court approval must be obtained before child support can be reduced, unless such payments are automatically reduced or terminated under the terms of this Agreement. It is agreed that the support as set out herein meets or equals the Child Support Guidelines as mandated by the State of Tennessee. Husband's current salary is approximately $48,000.00 per year, and such child support as agreed herein meets mandatory Guidelines promulgated by the State.

4. PRIVATE SCHOOL --

The parties hereto shall equally be responsible for and provide for tuition and books for private school for the parties' child (comparable to that of grammar school at Overbrook, Nashville, Tennessee, and comparable to high school at St. Cecelia through secondary school, in Nashville, Tennessee), for the dates that the child shall be enrolled in private school until the child attains age eighteen (18), or graduates with her graduating high school class, whichever last occurs.

5. COLLEGE EDUCATION --

The parties hereto shall provide college education for the parties' minor child so long as she maintains herself as a full-time student status for up to five (5) consecutive years, and each party shall provide one-half of educational expenses, which shall be defined only as tuition, required books, and room and board at the rates equating to those of an in-state student of undergraduate study at a public college or university comparable to the then current expenses as set out above at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville. The obligation of the parties to provide a college education for the child for up to five (5) consecutive years shall commence with the first Fall college term after the child graduates from high school, and shall continue thereafter for five (5) years, after which regardless of whether the child shall be in school, this provision shall be discharged and the parties shall have no further contractual responsibility to provide any educational expense under the terms of this paragraph for the child. If at any time during the five (5) consecutive years as herein set out, the child is terminated as a full time student, does not maintain a full time student status, or drops out of school, then the contractual obligations as set out in this paragraph of the parties shall be discharged immediately, even though the child shall not have attained an undergraduate degree or the five (5) years shall not have expired. Upon the withdrawal or termination or drop out of the child from college, although the contractual obligations to provide for a college education shall be terminated, such termination shall not prohibit the voluntary continuation by the parties to provide for the expenses as set out herein, but in no way shall such voluntary action of either or both parties, be construed as a reaffirmation of the contractual obligations of this paragraph.

6. REHABILITATIVE ALIMONY --

As rehabilitative alimony, Mr. Nestor shall pay to Ms. Nestor, the sum of One Hundred Fifty and 00/100 ($150.00) Dollars per month for a period of twelve (12) months, with the first payment due and payable on the 15th day of the first month after entry of the Final Decree of Divorce in this cause, without modification, to provide an additional source of funds to financially assist in the transition from married to single status. No modification of this award is intended or contemplated by the parties. Wife has her own source of income, earning approximately $48,000.00 per year, and is not in need of any further rehabilitation.

7. REAL ESTATE --

The parties shall continue as tenants in common to maintain the present marital residence located at 505 Old Harding Court, Nashville, Tennessee 37221. It is recognized and agreed that Husband's equity in the home as of June 10, 1994, is approximately $16,000.00. Wife shall be responsible for the existing mortgage while she resides in the house, and all of the real property taxes. Wife shall be responsible for the balance of the real property taxes from and after date of execution of this Agreement. Wife is to pay the insurance liability, and casualty coverage on the residence for 1994, and thereafter until the house is sold as provided herein. Wife shall also be allowed to reside in the residence without interference of the Husband until the earliest of her remarriage, or June 10, 2000, whichever first occurs, after which the house shall be immediately placed for sale and shall be sold for cash, and after the deduction of all normal closing costs, including real estate commissions, if applicable, and Husband's equity shall be paid to Husband, and Wife shall receive any and all remaining equity after the payment of Husband's equity as provided. Husband's equity as of June 10, 1994, is determined to be $16,000.00, which shall accrue interest from June 10, 1994, (Husband to provide amortization schedules, and Wife to execute Note), compounded annually until paid by Wife or by sale. The interest rate accruing on Husband's equity will be the same adjustable rate charged by the mortgage lender each year until Husband's equity is paid out. Wife may buy Husband's interest in the property at any time conditioned upon the cash payment to Husband of Husband's equity, plus accrued interest. The agreement of Husband to allow Wife to reside in the residence as above set out for a period of six (6) years, is conditioned on the contingencies as hereinabove set out and, in addition, contingent upon the Wife's ability to keep the mortgage payment current. In the event the mortgage becomes three (3) or more monthly payments behind, then Husband shall be allowed to declare default in the agreement and declare a sale of the residence at that time and to receive his equity upon the sale of the residence. In the event Wife fails to keep the mortgage current, the house shall be immediately placed on the market for sale and shall be sold for cash to the highest bidder, and each party shall receive their equity as herein provided. Husband shall also be entitled to be reimbursed for any payments he has made to the mortgage company to satisfy any delinquency plus 10% late payment fee in addition to any mortgage interest or penalty assessed by mortgage lender and paid by Husband in order to keep the mortgage current, from going into default, or to keep from damaging Husband's credit. Wife agrees to pay this late payment fee to Husband as liquidated damages. Wife shall execute a Promissory Note payable to Husband in the amount of $16,000.00, plus interest, as set out in this paragraph, to pay to Husband Husband's equity and accrued interest until the house is sold under the terms of paragraph 7 of this Agreement.

Included as a fixture of the real estate shall be the satellite dish and receiver, for which Wife may sell if she so desires, but the proceeds must be applied to any improvements to the home.

8. DEBTS --

The Husband shall be responsible for the Visa card debt in his name through Baxter Credit Union in the approximate amount of $4,947.00, a Service Merchandise debt in the approximate amount of $764.00.

The Wife shall be responsible for the Visa credit card debt in her sole name through Baxter Credit Union in the amount of approximately $7,215.00, a Shell Oil Company debt in the approximate amount of $400.00, and a Discover credit card debt in the approximate amount of $900.00. Any debts acquired after September 15, 1993, are sole responsibility of individual.

Each party shall hold the other party harmless and shall indemnify them from any further liability on these debts assumed as provided herein.

The parties acknowledge that an inducement to this Agreement is the current and timely payment of all indebtedness assumed by either party. Both parties agree to maintain their respective debt payments assumed as provided herein on a timely and current basis, so as not to affect the other party's credit.

9. TAXES --

Any unpaid taxes, penalty, and/or interest for 1993 and earlier years shall be divided equally. For the year 1994, Husband and Wife shall be entitled to deduct one-half (1/2) of mortgage interest and property taxes paid up to such time as the Final Decree is granted in this cause. Thereafter, Wife shall be entitled to deductions for all mortgage interest and property taxes paid on the principal residence. Husband shall be entitled to the dependency exemption for 1994 and, thereafter alternating with Wife every other year. Wife will provide Husband with completed IRS Form 8332 for release of the child dependency exemption for 1994 and each year as provided herein. As a condition to the execution of this Agreement, Wife shall execute IRS Form 8332 provided to Wife by Husband and, if necessary, additional forms as the Internal Revenue Service may require from time to time to allow Husband to be entitled to the dependency exemption in alternate years.

10. HUSBAND'S BUSINESS --

Husband shall be entitled to his business interest known under the name of Stephen P. Nestor, C.P.A., P.C., a Tennessee professional corporation, whose principal address is 315 Deaderick Street, Nashville, Tennessee 37238, and all of Husband's interests in it's assets, tangible or intangible, and the stock therein, free of any further right, title or claim of the Wife.

11. PENSION/RETIREMENT PLAN -- Husband has no pension or retirement plan. Wife has a pension and retirement plan or 401K Plan through her employment. Wife shall be entitled to her pension and retirement plan or 401K Plan, free of any further right, title or claim of the Husband. If a Qualified Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO") is required by Wife's pension or retirement plan or 401K Plan, both parties shall cooperate in executing a Qualified Domestic Relations Order to insure compliance of this paragraph. Wife's attorney shall prepare any applicable Qualified Domestic Relations Order.

12. PERSONAL PROPERTY --

The parties hereto have made an equitable division of their personal property. A schedule of division of that property is attached hereto and incorporated herein as "Exhibit A". Any and all property acquired after September 15, 1993, by either party shall be the exclusive property of the party purchasing such item.

13. AUTOMOBILES --

Husband shall have as his sole and separate property the burgundy 1991 Maxima automobile. The indebtedness regarding Husband's Maxima automobile is through Baxter Credit Union in the approximate amount of $14,000.00. Husband shall be responsible for any payments thereon and shall hold Wife harmless as to any liabilities therefore. Wife shall also have as her sole and separate property the blue-green 1993 Saturn SL-2 automobile, financed through Baxter Credit Union, in the approximate debt of $14,000.00. She shall be responsible for any payments thereon and shall assume, indemnify and hold Husband harmless as to any liabilities arising therefrom.

14. LIFE INSURANCE --

Husband is to maintain the existing life insurance in the face amount of $200,000.00 insuring his life. Husband may change policies, but agrees to maintain the present face value of all policies he presently has in existence, which is in the amount of $200,000.00. Husband shall designate Wife as Trustee for the parties' minor child as beneficiary until any and all obligations of support (including but not limited to education as set out in paragraph 4 and 5 of this Agreement) as contained herein are satisfied. Husband shall maintain existing disability insurance which he presently has in effect with the monthly benefit of $2,700.00 per month, so long as and until any and all obligations of support (including but not limited to education), as contained herein are satisfied. This provision does not imply that Wife shall receive the monthly disability benefit, but this provision is being made to insure that there are funds available to pay the Court Ordered child support and educational expense as provided herein. In the event of Husband's untimely death and the payment of proceeds to Wife to fund the provisions of this Agreement as they relate to support, such funds shall be used to provide for the payment of child support under the terms of this Agreement, the payment of any applicable health insurance premium, payment of medical and health care bills, maintenance and school expenses while the child is a minor, including the cost of private schooling, and upon attaining her majority, if the parties' child elects to go to college, to provide for those necessary expenses of higher education, which are defined as tuition, books, room, board, travel expense, health insurance, health care expenses, lab fees, activity fees, uniforms, and other required course materials and supplies, for a period of five (5) years of undergraduate study at a public college or university comparable to the then current expenses as above set out at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, Tennessee. The proceeds from such life insurance policies shall be used by the Wife for payment of such expenses. If the child does not elect to go to college after graduating from high school or goes to college but drops out for any reason, then the Wife shall retain the funds in an interest bearing Trust Account (without encroachment except for the payment of care related to emergency health or medical needs for the child), and upon the child attaining age twenty-five (25), the funds remaining shall be paid over to the child as her sole and separate property, without any further right, title or interest of the Wife. If the child does graduate from high school, and elects to go to college, then after five (5) years from the date the child enrolls in college, the balance of the funds then remaining after the payment of educational expenses above defined, shall be paid over to the child as her sole and separate property, without any further right, title, or interest of the Wife.

Wife is to maintain existing life insurance on her life in the face amount of $200,000.00, with Husband as Trustee for the parties' minor child as beneficiary to provide for the payment of child support while the child is a minor and to provide for educational expenses as set out in paragraphs 4 and 5 and this paragraph are satisfied. If the Wife terminates her employment whereby her life insurance shall also terminate, Wife shall be responsible for obtaining replacement coverage in the same face amount and she shall be responsible for the payment of the premium to maintain such coverage in full force and effect pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Upon the termination of Husband's obligation to pay child support and/or educational obligations under the terms of this Agreement or by law, Husband's obligation to maintain the Wife as Trustee for the child as beneficiary shall terminate and Husband shall be free to utilize the aforementioned policy in any manner he deems appropriate, including changing of beneficiaries, termination of the policy or otherwise. Likewise, with regard to the obligation of Wife to maintain life insurance designating the Husband as Trustee for the minor child as beneficiary, such obligation shall terminate under the terms as set out in this paragraph. Wife shall have the unrestricted right to the use of such insurance as owner, including the changing of beneficiaries, termination of the policy, or other rights incident to ownership, without any further right, title, or claim of Wife or the minor child.

15. This Agreement is a transfer of appreciated property between spouses in connection with a divorce and is not a sale or exchange or other disposition, but is a division of property by co-owners.

16. Each party shall be responsible for his or her own debts that each party incurred after the parties' separation

(i.e., September 15, 1993), except as provided herein, holding the other party harmless from any liability or obligation thereon. For any indebtedness not herein disclosed or set out, it is agreed that each party shall be responsible for that indebtedness in the same manner and under the same legal relationship and obligation as when those respective debts were incurred, except as otherwise stated in this Agreement.

17. Both parties agree to pay their own respective attorneys' fees for services rendered in this matter. The Court costs shall be paid by the Husband, for which execution may issue if necessary.

18. In consideration of the foregoing covenants, promises, and undertakings, both parties waive any and all claim for alimony against other, past or present, other than that which is specifically provided for herein.

19. In the event a creditor of either party seeks to compel the other party to pay any debt for which that party is not responsible either by contract or pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the party against whom such claim is made shall be entitled to recover from the other party the amount of any payment he or she makes, including interest, and any expenses incurred in defending the creditor's claim, including reasonable attorney's fees.

20. In the event it becomes reasonably necessary for either party to institute legal proceedings to procure the enforcement of any provision of this Agreement, he or she shall also be entitled to a judgment for reasonable expenses including attorney's fees incurred in prosecuting the action.

21. It is understood and agreed between the parties that this Agreement is intended to be a final settlement of all property rights and support rights and obligations of the respective parties hereto and shall constitute a discharge from all claims arising out of their marital relationship except as provided herein. Each party waives and relinquishes to the other all right or claims which they may have or hereafter acquire under the law of any jurisdiction with respect to the other's property, including without limitation, dower, courtesy, statutory allowance, homestead rights, rights to take against the Will of the other, inheritance, descent or distribution, or right to act as Administrator or Executor of the other's estate except as provided by the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement applies to all property now owned by the parties, individually or jointly, or any property that either of them may acquire in the future.

22. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their personal representatives, heirs and assigns.

23. In the event any provision of this Agreement shall be held invalid in a Court of competent jurisdiction, such individual provision shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement, said provisions being severable.

24. It is understood and agreed between the parties as part of the consideration for the execution of this Agreement each party shall willingly execute and deliver any and all instruments necessary or required in order to implement the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

25. This Agreement may be altered, amended or cancelled only by instrument in writing signed by each of the parties.

26. It is agreed by and between the parties that the Husband may proceed with his Complaint for Absolute Divorce in the Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, or any court of competent jurisdiction, on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and present the foregoing Agreement as evidence of the agreement between the parties in distributing the marital estate and resolving all matters involving the marital estate and shall be allowed to obtain a divorce in the Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, or any other court of competent jurisdiction upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences.
