Last Will and Testament

OF

BERYL WILLIAMS HORN

I, Beryl Williams Horn, domiciled in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils previously made by me.

ARTICLE I. I direct that the costs of administration of my estate, my funeral expenses, my just debts, and all estate, inheritance and similar transfer taxes assessed by reason of my death be paid as soon as practicable after my death. All such taxes assessed by reason of my death (and all penalties and interest imposed thereon) shall be paid out of my residuary estate, without apportionment among or contribution from the recipients of the properties which are required to be included in my gross estate for such tax purposes, whether said properties pass under this will or otherwise. The costs of ancillary administration or similar proceedings in other jurisdictions may, in the discretion of my Executor, be paid in whole or in part from my domiciliary estate. Proceeds of life insurance payable to my estate and coming into the hands of my Executor may be used to satisfy the obligations herein directed to be paid.

ARTICLE II. My present homeplace located at 614 Bowling Avenue in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, and all of my furniture, furnishings, linens, appliances, silverware, china, ornaments, objects of art, and other household goods and utensils situated at my said homeplace at the time of my death, I devise and bequeath to my daughter, Ruth Horn Crownoever, for and during her natural life. Upon the death of my said daughter, I devise and bequeath all of said property in fee and in equal shares, per capita and not per stirpes, to those of my son and my grandchildren who shall then be living; i.e., at the death of Ruth Horn Crownover said property shall pass to the then surviving of my son, Stanley F. Horn, Jr., and my grandchildren, Frances Horn Batson, Stanley F. Horn, III, Ruth Crownover Gold, Alice Crownover Weymuller, Sim Crownover, Jr., Arthur Crownover, II, and Stanley Horn Crownover, each of those then living to take an equal share of said property.

ARTICLE III. All of my insurance policies which provide indemnity for the loss of or damage to any of my personal or real property by fire, windstorm or other similar casualty (including any claim for the loss of or damage to any such property which I might have at the time of my death against any insurance company), I give and bequeath, respectively, to those persons who shall or would have become the owners of such property by reason of my death, whether such ownership be acquired under the provisions of this will, by survivorship or by other means.

ARTICLE IV. All the rest, residue and remainder of the property which I may own at the time of my death, real, personal and mixed, tangible and intangible, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, including all property which I may acquire or become entitled to after the execution of this will, all life insurance payable to my estate, and all property over or concerning which I may have any power of appointment, I bequeath and devise in fee and in equal shares to my two children, Stanley F. Horn, Jr. and Ruth Horn Crownover.

ARTICLE V. I appoint John J. Archer, of Nashville, Tennessee, to be Executor of this my last will and testament; and I direct that no bond shall be required of him.

ARTICLE VI. Without diminution or restriction of the powers vested in him by law or elsewhere in this instrument, and subject to all other provisions of this instrument, my Executor (including any substitute or successor personal representative), without the necessity of procuring any judicial authorization therefor or approval thereof, shall be vested with, and in the application of his best judgment and discretion in behalf of the beneficiaries of this instrument shall be authorized to exercise, the powers specifically enumerated in Section 3 of Chapter 110 of the Tennessee General Assembly of 1963, T.C.A. § 35-618, to the extent applicable, all of which provisions and powers are incorporated herein by reference as fully as if copied herein verbatim. These powers (as set out in said statute on the date of the execution of this will) are granted, notwithstanding that said statute hereafter may be amended or repealed.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have subscribed my name to this my last will and testament and have initialed all other pages hereof, all in the presence of the persons witnessing it and making affidavit thereto at my request, on this 12 day of September, 1980, at Nashville, Tennessee.
