FINAL JUDGMENT DISSOLVING MARRIAGE

This cause came on before the Court on motion of the petitioner for final judgment, and the Court finding that it has jurisdiction of the parties to and the subject matter of this action, and finding further that the marriage of the parties is irretrievably broken, it is

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that:

1. The marriage of the parties, VALERIE DIANE McDOUGAL, wife, and JAMES ALLEN McDOUGAL, husband, is dissolved and each spouse is restored to the status of being single and unmarried.

2. The parties have settled all property rights between them pursuant to their written agreement, attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, the terms of which are accepted by this Court and made a part of this final judgment.

3. To the end that differences between the husband and the wife, regarding matters contained in this final judgment may be resolved in other than an adversarial proceeding, if such differences arise, the husband and the wife shall confer in an effort to resolve them. No hearing may be scheduled before the court unless a party certifies that he or she has conferred as herein mandated and that the differences cannot be resolved without court intervention, or that the other party refuses to confer.

The court reserves the right to assess costs, including attorney's fees, against the party who declines to reach a reasonable solution to differences between the parties.

4. This Court shall retain jurisdcition of the parties to enforce the property settlement agreement and this final judgment.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Palatka, Putnam County, Florida, this 4th day of Dec, 1995.
