FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard on the 22nd day of May, 1981, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the pleadings and proof introduced, statement of counsel and the entire record in the cause, from all of which it appeared to the Court that the parties have experienced marital difficulties which are irreconcilable, and that an absolute divorce should be granted to these parties.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the parties be and the same are hereby forever and perpetually dissolved, and the plaintiff is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person, including the restoration of her former name.

It further appeared to the Court that the parties have entered into a Property Settlement Agreement, and that said property agreement is fair, just and equitable, and it is ORDERED that same be made a part of this Final Decree of Divorce by reference as fully as though copied verbatim herein.

It is further ORDERED that the temporary injunction heretofore issued in this cause, enjoining and restraining the defendant from coming about the plaintiff, be and the same is hereby made permanent.

The costs of the cause are taxed to the defendant, and for all of which let execution issue if necessary.
