Being of sound mind, I Henrietta L. Adams make this my last will and testament.

To Jack my husband I leave all the furniture in the apartment. Also all the linen and dishes. He may give away whatever he chooses to family & friends in remembrance of me. He can keep the car.

I have given the children (my children) the monies they wanted along time ago.

To Shirley Wheeler Adams my ~~Sister~~ niece diamond cluster ring.

To Dorothy Huskey I leave my diamond watch and all of my costume jewelry. After she has chosen what she wants, I ask Ann to give some pieces to these friends as remembrance — Nora Goodwin, Lolaine Cope, Rosie McFarland and Thelma Womack.

As I write this will, Gwendolyn Teasley and Constance can fit my clothes. Let them look through them and see if there's anything they can use. — Donate any clothes left to the Morgan Hall Building Fund. Also all of my coats.
