AFFIDAVIT OF HEIRSHIP

Personally appeared before me, Mary L. Hamill, a Notary Public in and for said County and State, Laurel Dorena Davis Thompson, Affiant, who, being by me first duly sworn, deposed and said as follows:

That she is the natural and legitimate daughter of Oscar Westley Davis and Myrtle Davis, both now deceased, who were lawfully married. That her said parents Oscar Westley Davis and Myrtle Davis had no other issue other than herself, either living or deceased, born within or outside lawful wedlock, or by adoption, and that, therefore, she has no siblings or half-siblings. That Oscar Westley Davis died intestate, a citizen and resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, on March 27, 1978, while married to the said Myrtle Davis, and leaving as his sole heirs at law Myrtle Davis and Laurel Dorena Davis Thompson. And that Myrtle Davis never again married and died intestate on March 17, 1990, while a citizen and resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, leaving Laurel Dorena Davis Thompson asher sole heir at law.

That she is the natural and legitimate granddaughter of George William Monroe Chandler and Laura Maranda Paradine Woodcock Chandler, who were lawfully married. That the said George William Monroe Chandler died intestate on May 8, 1957, a citizen and resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, leaving as his sole heirs at law Laura Maranda Paradine Woodcock Chandler and Myrtle Davis. That Laura Maranda Paradine Woodcock Chandler died intestate on December 20, 1966, having never again remarried, a citizen and resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, leaving Myrtle Davis, the mother of the affiant, as her sole heir at law. That her said grandparents had no other issue other than Myrtle Davis, either living or deceased, whether born within or outside lawful wedlock, or by adoption, and that, therefore, her said mother Myrtle Davis had no siblings or half-siblings.

That she is familiar with the estates of all of the decedents referred to herein, and there are no debts, inhertance taxes, estate taxes, or other taxes due against any of said estates.
