FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came on to be heard on June 19, 1997 in the Chancery Court for Robertson County, Tennessee. After review of the stipulations of the parties, testimony of the parties, argument of counsel and review of the entire file in this matter, the Court hereby incorporates the following stipulations, and orders the following:

1. REAL PROPERTY. The real property, located at 4288 Burton Hollow Road, Whites Creek, Tennessee (hereinafter "Marital Home") owned by the parties shall be immediately placed for sale. Complainant ANGELA DAWN WOODWARD LONG (hereinafter "Wife") shall forego any equity from the sale of the house. Defendant JAMES HERBERT LONG (hereinafter "Husband") shall hold Wife harmless for any indebtedness against the Marital Home, and shall timely pay all debt, utilities and maintenance on the Marital Home until it is sold. Both parties shall execute any documents necessary to expedite the sale of the Marital Home.

2. MORTGAGE PAYMENT. The mortgage payment of the parties shall be brought current by Husband on or before June 30, 1997 to avoid foreclosure proceedings. James Herbert Long shall place the Marital Home on the market for sale on or before July 3, 1997.

3. PERSONAL PROPERTY. The parties have divided all personal property except the following items, which shall be divided as follows:

(a) Wife has returned to Husband all video tapes she removed from the parties' marital residence on May 13, 1996, with the exception of one video tape as agreed by the parties.

(b) A diamond ring now in the possession of Wife has been placed by her in a lock box, for which she shall pay the annual fee, and will be given to the parties' minor child, Jessica Bailey Long (hereinafter "Minor Child"), once said Minor Child reaches age 25. An appraisal of the ring has been made and placed simultaneously therewith in the lock box.

4. CHILD SUPPORT. Husband shall pay to Wife the sum of Eight Hundred Seventy-Two and 00/100 ($872.00) Dollars per month by wage assignment in regular child support, commencing July 1, 1997. This amount is in compliance with the Tennessee Child Support Guidelines based on the average of Mr. Long's 1996 and 1997 income to date ($794-$951). Husband shall pay said amount by wage assignment. Husband shall complete the form to enter an income assignment order and pay the child support directly through the Court until such time as a new wage assignment order is in place.

5. BACK CHILD SUPPORT. The parties acknowledge Husband owes back child support in the amount of $760.89. The arrearage is to be paid by wage assignment at a rate of $50.00 per month over the next 14.2 months, commencing July 1, 1997.

6. JOINT DEBTS. Each party agrees the joint debt of the parties, a bill in the amount of $251.00 due to Rivergate Pediatrics, is to be divided equally and each party shall pay his or her share, $125.50, directly to the pediatrician. The parties are to pay their shares of the bill within sixty (60) days of entry of the Final Order in this cause.

7. MEDICAL INSURANCE. Husband shall place the parties' Minor Child on his health insurance, made available to him through Saturn Corporation. Wife has provided the child's birth certificate, Social Security number, and will provide any other documents necessary to expedite having the Minor Child placed on Husband's medical insurance. In the interim, Wife is to maintain the health insurance she currently has on the Minor Child. Both parties shall be equally responsible for payment of medical bills not covered by health insurance of the parties.

8. FEDERAL TAX DEDUCTION. Husband shall be allowed to declare the parties' Minor Child as a dependent on his 1997 federal income tax return. Husband then will be permitted each odd year to declare the parties' Minor Child as a dependent, and Wife will be permitted to declare the parties' Minor Child as a dependent each year. The parties must cooperate in the signing of documents necessary to accomplish the deduction.

9. CUSTODY. The parties agree to joint custody of the Minor Child, Jessica Bailey Long, with primary physical custody to be in the Wife, and secondary physical custody to be in the Husband.

10. COURT TESTIMONY. The parties are declared divorced, pursuant to T.C.A. § 36-4-129(b), on the basis of inappropriate marital conduct.

11. BOAT. The Husband hereby agrees to be enjoined and restrained from taking the Minor Child on his boat until the summer of 1998, at which time Husband agrees the Minor Child will wear a life preserver on the boat at all times.

12. STANDARD VISITATION. The Husband presently has a complicated and unusual work schedule at Saturn Corporation. Therefore, the Court orders that until the Minor Child starts school, that Husband shall have visitation with the Minor Child from Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. during each of his five consecutive day blocks off from work at Saturn. Mr. Long will also receive his one weekend off per month, from Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m., in accordance with the published Saturn schedule. Mr. Long will also have every other Tuesday at 6:00 p.m. through Thursday at 6:00 p.m. Mr. Long's 1997 published schedule is attached as Exhibit "1". Mr. Long agrees to provide Ms. Long with a copy of the Saturn schedule for upcoming years as soon as published. For purposes of understanding, the following schedule will be in effect for 1997:

13. SUMMER VISITATION. Husband will have standard overnight visitation for the Summer of 1997. Husband may take the Minor Child to Boston, Massachusetts to visit his family during his 1997 Christmas visitation period if he so desires. Commencing the Summer of 1998, Husband shall receive two (2) uninterrupted weeks of visitation to be agreed by the parties. If the parties cannot agree, Husband shall receive the first two weeks of July.

14. HOLIDAY VISITATION. The parties agree to holiday visitation as follows:

(a). Easter and Thanksgiving to Wife in odd years and to Husband in even years.

(b). Memorial Day, Labor Day and Halloween to Wife in even years and to Husband in odd years.

(c). One-half (1/2) of the child's birthday to each party every year.

(d). Mother's Day to Mother each year and Father's Day to Father each year (9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. if the parties cannot otherwise agree).

(e). Father to receive "Take Your Daughter to Work Day" each year in April from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

(f). The parties agree that Wife shall receive the week before Christmas, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day morning each year with the child. The parties agree that Husband shall receive Christmas visitation commencing on Christmas Day until New Year's Day at 6:00 p.m.

15. TRANSFER FOR CHRISTMAS VISITATION. The Minor Child will be transferred for Christmas visitation each year at 12:00 Noon.

16. RESTORATION OF MAIDEN NAME. The Wife is hereby restored to her maiden name of Angela Dawn Woodward.

17. MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER. The parties hereby agree to a permanent, mutual restraining order, which will enjoin and restrain each party from threatening, harassing and coming around the other party's home or employment. The parties shall not engage in telephone harassment. Telephone calls shall be limited to calls regarding the health, welfare and safety of the parties' Minor Child.

18. PLACE OF TRANSFER OF MINOR CHILD. The Court orders the Husband to pick up the Minor Child at a public place near Wife's residence. The parties have agreed to meet at the Citgo Gas Station in Springfield, Tennessee, for transfer of the Minor Child. Any responsible adult family member may transport the Minor Child to and from the visitation pick-up site.

19. ATTORNEYS FEES. Husband shall pay attorneys fees in the amount of $3,000.00 to Wife's attorney, Charlotte U. Fleming, upon which execution may issue, if necessary. All remaining attorneys fees shall be paid by the parties to their respective attorneys.

20. COURT COSTS. Wife has paid certain court costs associated with this action, and Husband shall pay any and all remaining court costs, for which execution may issue, if necessary.
